DR. S. RANGASWAMI IYENGAR

"DIABETES SPECIALIST."

RARE AND INVALUABLE SPECIFIC FOR THE CURE OF "DIABETES."

After a short visit to the Madras Presidency on professional work Dr. S. RANGASWAMI IYENGAR, the well-known Diabetes Specialist has RETURNED TO BOMBAY and will be glad to treat "DIABETES" suffering patients.

During the short stay he has made here before he has treated and has completely cured many persons of whom the following are a few:—

KANYALAL BADRIDAS, a Cotton Merchant, Bombay writes:—

"It gives me great pleasure in testifying to the real efficacy of Dr. S. R. Iyengar's medicinal drugs. I was suffering from "Diabetes" for the last 12 years—Commenced Dr. Iyengar's treatment—my urine was examined by the Bombay Municipal Analyst the Sp. Gravity was 1037 and sugar 5-62 per cent. After treatment, the examination of the same Municipal Analyst; and Dr. N. H. Clubwala M. D. B. Hy. (Bombay) at Dr. Masina Hospital Pathological Laboratory "Sugar was found nil" and Sp. Gravity 1012.

Mr. BHAILAL V. KHOTHARI, B.A., LL.B., Vakil, High Court, Bombay, writes:—

"It gives me great and sincere pleasure in testifying to the real efficacy of Dr. S. R. Iyengar's medical drugs. I was suffering from Diabetes for over 4 years and had tried many well-known doctors of Bombay but without any effect. I then put myself under the treatment of the said Doctor Iyengar and he prescribed a course of 7 complete weeks for me. As each week progressed the disease that could not at all be controlled before, began to abate with the result that I was completely cured at the end of the course, in such a marvellous way that I can very well say that Dr. Iyengar is not a diabetes specialist in name but a specialist indeed in reality. My Sp. Gr. which was 1038 in the beginning of the course came down to 1015 at the end and grains of sugar per ounce of urine fell down from 24 to nil while sediments were not at all visible.

IT WAS THE DEAD OF NIGHT AND SHE WAS ALONE

What was that strange noise ? Why should anyone be prowling around at this hour of night and near her room ? And the events of that night enmeshed this girl in a web that accused her of alienating the affections of married man stealing the jewels and kidnapping a baby.

YOU'LL BE SURPRISED AND THRILLED AT THIS MYSTERY.

THE WEATHER.

(Associated Press.)

SIMLA, Oct. 28.

A storm has apparently formed in the bay its centre being about three hundred miles east of Cuddalore. It is probably moving in a North-westerly direction. Rainfall has been nearly general on North Madras Coast and in Assam, Bengal, Malabar, South Burma and Bihar.

Chief amounts: Tezpur one and a half inches; Jessore three-quarters, Burdwan two, Trivandrum one, Madras three, Nellore six, Calingapatam two. Western disturbance is not affecting North-West India.

Forecast diminution in Bengal.

DAILY WEATHER REPORT.

Summary of observations recorded at 8 hours on Friday, the 29th October 1920, giving data for the preceding 24 hours.

The Punjab.—The sky is clear and except at Delhi and Lahore the air is drier than usual. Day temperature is generally above the average; night temperature is also above normal except at Delhi.

The United Provinces.—The sky is clear than usual. Day temperature is above the average; night temperature is nearly normal.

Sind and Rajputana.—The sky is clear and except at Karachi the air is drier than usual. Day temperature is above the average in Rajputana; night temperature is above normal in Sind.

Gujarat, Kathiawar and Central India West.—The sky is clear. The air is drier than usual except at Bhuj where humidity is in excess. Day temperature is below the average at Neemuch, but above it over the rest of the division; night temperature is below normal at Bhuj and Bhavnagar-Para.

The Central Provinces.—Skies are clear or lightly clouded and the air is drier than usual. Day temperature is generally above the average; night temperature is above normal at Amraoti, but below it at Khandwa.

The Konkan.—The sky is moderately clouded in the south. It is almost clear in the north where the air is drier than usual. Day temperature is above the average; night temperature is nearly normal.

The Bombay Deccan and Hyderabad.—The sky is heavily clouded in south Hyderabad, but is lightly clouded elsewhere. The air is drier than usual in the north Bombay Deccan. Day temperature is above the average at Nizamabad; night temperature is above normal in Hyderabad and in the south Bombay Deccan.

General Remarks.—The storm off the Madras coast has given general rain on that coast and in southeast Mardas and the Madras Deccan. Rain has also been nearly general in south Malabar. Madras reports 3.79". Cuddaph 1.76", Masulipatam 1.65" and Negapatam 1.63". Day temperature is generally above the average to the north of the latiude of Bombay.

Forecast.—An extension of rain is likely in south Hyderabad and northwards on the west coast.

Lok. Tilak's Marble Bust

FOR SALE

Price, Rs. 2,500.

Tilak Memorial Committees wishing to have a genuine bust or statue of him are requested to ask from Mr. Wagh photographs of the same lest they be misled. Lok. gave Mr. Wagh special sittings and on approval of the model placed an order for a marble bust with him.

Lok.'s son says the bust is better than any he saw until now. He and Mrs. Besant write "the bust is a speaking likeness of Lokamanya."

Lokamanya's plaster marble and bronze busts and statues of large and small sizes are also being executed by Mr. Wagh.

PIECE-GOODS.

The tone of the cloth Market during the past week has been unsettled, and in the absence of business the rates can only be said to be nolminal. There are some merchants who are anxions to get rid of their holdings at any price, but there are others who are not willing to throw off the goods, though they are prepared to give fair concessions in order to effect Sales. Business has been confined to small lots of a retail nature, as buyers have not been in the mood to buy anything beyond their immediate requirements. What the future course oi prices will be has been the subject of discussion amongst the merchants. There are many who hold the opinion that the bottom n prices has not been reached, for the following reasons :—1 There are signs of depression in everry trade, 2 the drops in the price of the raw material, 3 the decline in the manchester Cloth Market, 4 the absence of demand from upcountry districts, 5 the shortage of rain in the consuming centres. 6 the tightness of money due to locking up of capital in piece-goods, as well as in shares of newly floated companies, 7 the heavy speculation in properties which has seriously been set back owing to want of funds with buyers; 8 the anxiety of dealers to get rid of their holdings even at sacrifices 9 the fear that weak holders will either be unable to meet their liabilities or collapse by forcing sales, 10 the suspension of credit, 11 the heavy accumulation of stocks, 12 the "Swadeshi" movement which is gaining strength day by day, and the Japanese competition, 13 the prevalence of sickness everywhere and 14 the curtailment of consumption due to various strikes, whereby the buying power of the poorer classes has been greatly diminished. On the other hand; however, some dealers are optimistic and hope to see an improvement in the situation in the near future, their contentions being :—If the depression will not last long and will be followed by a brisk demand from upcountry to replenish supplies, 2 the lower level of prices will induce buying on a free scale, 3 the reports of damage to the crop are likely to be received which will again push up rates of American and Egyptian Cotton, 4 though the depression in the weaving districts of Lancashire is acute, only 150,000 looms out of 800,000 looms are estimated to be idle, and makers will have to ask for higher prices owing to the curtailment of production, and the increase cost of coal and higher wages of labour, 5 owing to financial strungency, considerable difficulty has been experienced by Manchester merchants and shippers in negotiating bills. which will result in the curtailment of fresh forward business, 6 the coal strike which if prolonged would mean the closing down of several mills, 7 the Shipments may be delayed ereating shortage of particular class of goods, 8 the present rate of exchange which is unfavourable for importers and increases the cost of goods, 9 the absence of fresh forward business since some time back will curtail the shipments, 10 there is confidsnce that the dealers will be able to tide over their difficulties, and the heavy losses will be met with by the enormous profits that were made during the latter part of the war period, and 11 in spite of the sentiment in favour of "Swadeshi" goods, Lancashire Cloth, specially white goods, will command a good sale.

It is rumoured in Calcutta that the total of goods held up by the Banks, through the failure of the importors there to take up documents, is about two crores of rupees, and this is chiefly due to the fall in exchagge, Very few sales have been reported on the Lucky Day in Calcutta,

The postal and telegraphic strikes have paralysed trade with upcountry: The Merchants have to undergo hardships and suffer losses as the temporary arrangements have proved to be very unsatisfactory,

The threatened strike of Bombay mill-hands has been averted as the mill-owners. it is understood, have decided to increase the total allowances of piece workers from 75 to 80 per cent and to giulen increase of 15 per cent the monthly paid workers from 1st November, and furtkermore. a bonus will be granted to all workers on January 15th next.

In view of the fall in rupee sterling ex change the Government of India have decided, with effect from 1st November to increase the charge on foreign telegrams to Europe from Rs. 1 to Rs. 1-2 a word.

SUGAR MARKET REPORT.

(FROM OUR CORRESPONDENT.)

Bombay, Oct. 29.

We have to report a depressed market during the week without any business doing. Although the price for ready sugars is fixed the resellers are selling at much below the market rate. The further arrivals of 75,000 bags by s.s. Dogra has made dealers more nervous and they are experiencing great difficulty in disposing same. Karachi and Calcutta markets remain very quiet with lower rates and no business. Java market is utterly depressed with no buyers at any price. the price has gone down to 28 gilder sand many failures expected. American markets are also very quiet. Two more steamers are on the way from Java and two from Mauritius and after their arrival we expect further heavy decline in prices. The following are the Bazar rates and stocks :—

T W T Rs. 40 equal 56s. F. B. Harbour stocks 175,000 bags.

Soft Rs. 40 equal 55s. F. B. Harbour stocks 7,00 bags.

Mauritius Rs. 40.

MILL-STORES.

(FROM OUR CORRESPONDENT.)

Bombay, Oct. 29.

The market continues quiet and dull. Local as well as mofussil mills have a very poor demand. Home-quotations for Healds are about 60 to 65d., and the consignments arriving in the harbour are not in abundance. A few cases of Healds however, recently arrived. The Exchange is quite unfavourable at present., the unsteadiness of exchange causegreat anxiety to large importers, in as much as no adequate calculations can be based when the fluctuations in the rate of exchange are constant. Several of the draf remain unretired owing to the weakness displayed in the rate of exchange.

Among wooden sundries, Shuttles are very dull with quite ordinary demand. Bobbins continue in sympathy with shuttles. Slubbings 13/16" are not, however, freely available. Indenting in Japanese wooden sundries, has become very limited. English goods are being booked from Manchester and London.

Among leather sundries, Picking Bands have displayed slight weakness. Pickers kept steady. In woolen goods Kenyon Roller Cloth is not so easily available, and the rate is always comparatively high. The quotations are as under :—

Healds Rs. 2-8-0 to 3; Reeds As 4 to 5; Roller Cloth (K) Rs. 6 to 8; Six flannels, Rs. 4 to 5; Picking Bands Rs. 2-8-0 to 3; Pickers, Rs. 60 to 80; Fillets Rs. 1-8-0 to 2; Shuttles (Eng. 14½") Rs. 25 to 30; Slubbings (Jap, Rs. 45 to 55, Rowings (Jap) Rs. 25 to 30.

CHEMICAL.

(FROM OUR CORRESPONDENT.)

Bombay, Oct. 29.

Enquiries for chemicals have not yet come to hand very freely. Though more interest has been shown for future prices. Covering for forward goods has not been in abundance. Sodium has displayed steady decline in values. Zinc chloride little participated in rise and decline of values. Bichromate of soda and Potash kept steady after our last report. There is no alleviation in the position of Bleaching The prices for Bleach underwent no upward change. Some stocks as there are practically unsaleable on account of defective packing, are available at very low rate. The quotations are almost the same as in our last report.

COLOUR-MARKETS.

Oct. 29.

The situation in the market remains unchanged. Fluctuations have been less attractive. The present weakness in the rate of exchange has greatly contributed to uncertainty in the market. No definite lines can be drawn as to the future immediate turn in the market.

Up-country retail inquiries have fairly overtaken the mill demand, since the number of tenders issued by dyeing houses has been reduced at present. Congo has less than usual consumption. Sulphuric dyes kept ordinarily in demand. Alizarine evidenced little changes. Retail as well as wholesale consumers appear to have taken a fancy for real German stuff. The latest quotations are the same as in last report.

FREIGHT MARKET REPORT

(FROM OUR CORRESPONDENT.)

Oct. 29.

Business is still very slack. Only small lots were done during the week. S. S. City of Baroda booked about 1,500 tons at 35s. light seeds, 40s. seeds measurement, for Liverpool November. A fair quantity was booked for Antwerp, November/December at 50s. light seeds and 55s. seeds/measurement, and afterwards at 55s light seeds and 60s seeds-measurement. For Hamburg, business was done at 70s light seeds and 75s seeds/measurement for the New Year.

It is reported that a steamer has been fixed at 90s on D. W. basis. Tonnage market is steady.

Following are the quotations :—

PORTS.	Steamers and month of Shipment.	Light seeds.	Seeds.	Meast.
Hull	Oct.-Nov.	57-6	67-6	67-6
	Nov.-Dec
London	Nov.-Dec.	45	50	55

Bombay, Oct. 29.

During the week under review Home markets show the following changes as will be seen from the table below :—

	19th Oct. 1920.	26th Oct. 1920.
Liverpool Spot	16-20	18-56—2-36
New York Spot	20-50	22-50—2.00

	26th Oct. 1920.		27th Oct. 1920
Liverpool Oct.	1920	14-43	16-32—1-89
Liverpool Mar.	1921	14-17	15-34—1-17
New York Jan.	1921	19-23	20-73—1-50
New York Mar.	1921	18-95	20-50—1-55

As for Home markets private advices are of a mixed character; but our own opinion is that much will depend on trade and finance. But we recommend buying at about 15 cents in New York distant positions.

As for forward busines in our market there is no chance for the market to be opened yet, unless settlelment arrived at between Cotton Contract Board and Trade.

During the whole week the inquiry for ready cotton was poor with small off-take from Exporters and Mills.

BOY KNOCKED DOWN BY MOTOR,

INSUFFICIENT LIGHTING OF STREETS.

Owing to the darkness in which the streets are shrouded, vehicular accidents are again increasing in the city. On Thursday, about 7 p.m., Vithal Sukhia, a boy of sixteen, employed as a tennis-boy at the Bombay Gymkhana, ran out to fetch a victoria for one of the members, and whilst he was crossing Wandoy Road, a motor car, number not known, which was proceeding towards the Queen Victoria Statue, knocked him down. At the spot where the boy was knocked down there was no lamp light and the street was quite dark. Vithal received a contusion on the right cheek and was removed to the G. T. Hospital where he has been detained for treatment. He was also found to be suffering from shock, consequent on the accident.

FATAL FALL OF WOULD-BE BURGLAR

Another fatal incident which also seems to be due to the darkness of streets, has been reported from Memonwada, where it appears that Karim Chhotu, a gaol bird, taking advantage of the absence of lights in the streets went to commit burglary, but unfortunately for him, met his death. On Thursday morning, Karim was found lying dead on Memonwada Road near the corner of the house of one Yacoob Juma. A broken piece of the cornice of the first floor of the house was lying near him. A waste water pipe ran near the corner near which there was a window. There were fresh foot marks on the pipe. Inspector Home on receiving information went to the spot and took the finger impression of the deceased which on being examined at the Finger Print Bureau, was ascertained to be that of Karim Chhotu, a man having nine convictions for theft.

At an inquest held on Karim's body the jury returned a verdict of death from the fracture of the skull due to a fall from the first floor of a house.

BARRACKPORE RACES.

AUTUMN MEETING: 5TH DAY

(By Our Racing Correspondent.)

CALCUTTA, Oc. 28.

The last meeting of the Barrackpore races took place to-day. The card was a long one consisting of seven races ,favourites coming home only in three races; but as they started almost at famine prices, it did not bring much comfort to the army of backers who had mustered in their strength. Notwithstanding the heat and dust of the afternoon. The Agarpara Plate, the most important race of the day went to Mary, who was at eights and tens with Bookmakers, but on whom the machine paid almost at the rate of fifteen to one. Generally speaking, it proved an outsider's day. Racing was quite interesting, there being no runaway victory except in the Evington Plate.

Details:—

MYSORE RACES.

(From our Correspondent)

MYSORE, Oct. 29.

The second and last day's Mysore Races came off this evening. The attendance was anything but satisfactory. Though the weather was cloudy, with occasionally slight showers, the paucity of the gathering could not be attributed to it, as the sport was interesting. Some good finish were witnessed. There were some surprises, especially Max's performances, for thi English gelding is new to the course. And was not expected to win for all its controlled nature, showed it had not yet taken a liking to the turf.

The following are details:—

THE SERINGAPATAM PLATE.—Distance 1½ miles over six flights of Hurdles.
Col Desaraj Urs' DERMAN, 10-9, Hamirsingh 1
Mr Desvess' DORANA, 11-4, Owner 2
Capt Subbaraj Urs' WALAD, 10-10, Ananda Rao 3

Betting:—6 to 4 Derman, evens Dorando, 4 to 1 against Walad.
The race:—Walad had the lead from a good start and with Dorando in close pursuit and Derman behind, getting past the half mile Derman gained ground and came abreast of Dorando, at the seventh post the field was racing together but by the time they reached the third post. Derman had come up Dorando following and Walad much behind Derman passed the last hurdle without difficulty and won easily by 20 lengths, 15 lengths separated second.
Time:—3 mins. 3 secs.

THE BAGHDAD PLATE.—Distance 1 mile.
H H Maharaja of Mysore's LITTLE WONDER II, 9-0, Bobjan .....
Col B Chamraj Urs' BARMAN, 8-4, Mr Yoossuff Khan 2

Betting:—6 to 4 Little Wonder II. evens Barman.
The race: Berman to-day also managed to get out of control and just as he was being taken to the post he got way and ran to stables. He was with difficulty taken to the post and the jockey very cleverly mounted him and the stating bell was given just as he took to heels, Barman began a good lead, but by the time the field reached the straight, he seemed to have tired out, Little Wonder II was gaining ground. Little Wonder II won by one and a quarter lengths.

WEST END CINEMA.

This week's Picture at the West End is "Sahara"—mostly an Oriental Film, set midst the environments of African life and scenery. A pretty dancense of the Parison Opera—"Butterfly" as she is called—is fondled and curdled by smart young men of that particular class, who worsh p at the shrine of Lavity and Frivolity. The "Butterfly" however is a married women, and her husband, all of a sudden, transplants her in the ghastly solitude of an African desert, Sick of the lonesome monotony of Arab life, the "Butterfly" happens to come across a Russian Baron—a man with a purse larger than his conscience—and the wing of the "Butterfly" are clipped. Her husband and her son go to the wall But the dinuaat after all is happy. The woman gone astray realises the worth, in the end, of the one genuine thing she had always scoffed at—Love! Retribution is meted out to the seducer, and the much wronged husband gets his wife—not the original "Butterfly", but the genuine, loving, mate of his life.

Among the speakers will be Lala Lajpat Rai, Messrs. V. J. Patel, Mr. Jamnadas Dwarkadas, D. Chaman Lall, V. M. Pawar, E. L. Iyer B. P. Wadia, etc., etc.

TOMORROW'S CONGRESS.

TRUTH ABOUT TRADE UNION.

The story of the Indian labourers is most piteous. No pen can exaggerate their sufferings and their condition. In the factories themselces, "any man would feel exhausted even if he merely sat in a chair in some of the work-rooms, for eight or nine hours, the atmosphere is so foul." And doctors opine that "the mill operative suffers to a very large extent from tuberculosis and dyspepsia."

Wof of Hunger.

The wolf of hunger, the terror of endemic disease, the insecurity of employment, the danger of life itself under the horrible conditions of housing in our cities, are the factors which have already produced unrest; and this unrest is manifesting itself in the constant strikes and formation of Unions. It is computed that during the first six months of the current year there have been at least 200 strikers involving more than 1,500,000 men, women and children wage-earners. The spirit of organization has also caught, and it has been decided to hold a Trades Union Congress which meets in our city at the Empire Theatre, to-morrow.

Trade Unions.

It is the way of steadfast organization that leads to success. It was the way of steadfast organization that led the British workers to victory. Trade Unions uplifted them, and Trade Unions will uplift our workers. History of European countries shows that nothing short of combination would effect any improvement in the deplorable condition of the workers. The workers must realise this, and hold fast to their Unions.

Thorny Path.

But the path to emancipation is not strewn with roses. It is a thorny one, and there will be many difficulties to face. But if the workers will not tarry and will march on, bearing the brunt of the danger, then the victory will be theirs. Faint heart never won a fair lady. It is only the brave who can enjoy victory and its fruits.

The British workers had to face severe trials in their struggle for the rights. The law of the country prohibited organizations of labour. The members of Parliament thought it "abominable" that labourers should "unite to persecute their employers." "Poor, down-trodden labourers, earning seven shillings a week, had become 'criminal'. 'fearful' and 'abominable' because they thought they ought to have more than seven shillings a week, and said so", says Mr. Ernest Selley. To give an idea what persecutions the British labour had to undergo, I shall give an instance:—

In October, 1833, the farmers of Tolpuddle, an obscure village in Dorsetshire, formed a union. It was the first English Agricultural Union in England, but the labourers were simply taking a leaf out of town workers' book. The lawful intention of the Union was proved by its Rule 23 "that the object of the Society can never be promoted by an act or acts of violence, but, on the contrary, all such proceedings must tend to injure and destroy the Society itself. This Order, therefore, will not countenance any violation of law." At the time it was not illegal to form an association, the laws against combination had been repealed in 1824, but still "an old statute intended for suppression of seditious societies was specially invoked, and the six prisoners, after a brief and farcical trial, received a sentence of seven years' transportation." After the sentence was passed, as the "prisoners" were being led away, James Lovellers, one of them, scribbled some verses on a piece of paper and threw it among the crowd.

This is one of the verses:—

"God is our guide! No sword we draw
We kindle not war's battle fires;
By reason, union, justice, law
We claim the birthright of our sires
We raise the watchword liberty
We will, we will, we will be free!"

British workers had to overcome tremendous difficulties before they could win their rights. But they fought for their freedom to the death and at last won it. The Indian workers must not feel dejected at temporary failures or troubles. Failures are mere corner-stones on the road to Better Life. Trade Union has brought gala days to European workers and it will bring joy and cheer to Indian workers too, if they will hold fast in their fight:

"The cause of each other with vigour defend
Be honest and true, and fight to the end;
Where duty may lead you go, fearlessly go,
And stand like the brave, with your face to the foe.
"Let hope, then, still cheer us; though long be the strife
More comforts shall come to the workman's home life;
More food for our children; demand it, then go,
And stand like the brave, with your face to the foe.
"Press on, never doubting redemption draws near—
Poor serfs shall arise from oppression and fear;
Though great ones oppose you, they can't overthrow,
If you stand like the brave, with your face to the foe."

[From an old English song.]

MAULVI ZAFAR ALI'S CONVICTION.

MAGISTRATE'S JUDGMENT.

(Associated Press.)

LAHORE, Oct. 28.

Mr. Alam Mitchell, Special Megistrate, who pronounced orders, yesterday in the case of Maulvi Zafar Ali Khan delivered a lengthy judgment. After determining what was the nature of the speeches delivered by the accused at Hazro and whether they constituted an offence under the Indian Penal Code concluded his judgment as follows:—

I, therefore, convict the accused Zafar Ali of an offence under section 124A I. P. C. In the matter of sentence, I cannot take lenient view of the accused's action. His action is not that of a man who in an excited political atmosphere allowed his feelings to run away with him in a meeting held in his native place. He deliberately visited a district at some considerable distance from his home inhabited by a sturdy and virile Mussalman people and there delivered a speech deliberately calculated to inflame the minds of his audience against the Government established by law in British India. Furthermore, he selected as the scene of his speech a place on the very border of the North West-Frontier Province where considerable excitement already existed among the Mussalman population. He was not unaware of the danger of inflammatory speeches addressed to inhabitants of the North-Western Frontier Province, as he had received definite warning of it in the shape of the action of the Government of that province in refusing him admission to the Province. Taking all these matters into consideration, I sentence the accused Zafar Ali to be transported for a period of five years and to pay a fine of Rs. 1,000 in default of payment of which the acuused will undergo a further term of six months' rigorous imprisonment.

The Magistrate also found that the accused's action was clearly punishable under section 153A and passed sentence already telegraphed.

AMRITSAR OBSERVES HARTAL

(Associated Press.)

AMRITSAR, Oct. 28.

On the news of the sentence passed against Maulvi Zafar Ali Khan reaching here, the city is observing hartal.

BOMBAY AMUSEMENTS.

THE QUAINTS.

That delightful Concert Party, "The Quaints", which landed in Bombay last February are giving their last five performances next week at the Excelsior Theatre, commencing Monday, November 1st.

They will give frequent changes of programme during this short season which will include a little musical fantasy "Without a Smile" and another new skit entitled "Wireless Telegraphy". At the head of the Co. will be that quaint comedian R. B. Salisbury and Miss Hilda Deaton.

EXCELSIOR.

The cinema programme at the Excelsior is a cheerful combination of topical, comedy and dramatic films. "Commuters" is the title of the comedy drama. It is the story of the sequel to a night out. The "hero of the night" taking home a friend who may be described as the unwelcome guest. He is very uncomfortable, and everybody else in the House is very uncomfortable. Presendtly Ma-in-Law appears on the scene. Now there is not room for two unwelcome guests. One must go. And the one that goes isn't Ma-in-Law. With an "Around the Town" topical film, a film story of a parrot, and another of an amusing deception; it is a cinema programme with which the time can be filled in pleasantly enough when a change is required from the Denniston Players and the Quaints.

THE BOMBAY CHRONICLE.

TRADE UNION CONGRESS.

The one event for which the masses of organised Labour have been waiting with impatience is now at hand, full as it is, of great import for the workers of India. The first session of the first Trade Union Congress meets to-morrow at the Empire Theatre under the Presidentship of Lala Lajpat Rai. From the enthusiasm which has been evinced by Labour in all parts of India, from the number of delegates who have arrived, from the amount of work in organising the movement which has been accomplished it appears that the movement has indeed come at an opportune moment in the history of Indian Labour. Let us not mince matters but admit quite frankly that this movement probably contains the seeds of a gigantic change which is bound to affect every form of Indian public activity and on its proper development will depend the future of the country as much as on the growth of the political organisations. The workers for the first time in the history of India have become conscious of their power and conscious also of the fact that without organisation they can do nothing but beat vain wings at the gold and iron gate of Capital. The cause of the workers is a Samson whose strength lies in organised effort. That strength dissipated often, sometimes wasted uselessly, has now been gathered up in the Trade Union Congress through the efforts of a few workers who have realised the fundamental truth of the world-situation to-day that the producers of the world's wealth should be its true inheritors. But the times we are living in are so serious and the dangers besetting the path of Labour trying to achieve its unity such that the seven hundred delegates who will deliberate upon the conditions of Labour in India should not leave the deliberations in any air of uncertainty. Their work does not commence with the holding of the Congress just as as it does not end once the Congress is over. It is above necessary that a permanent staff should be created and all signs of a desire to create useless sinecures for the adornment of useless individuals scrupulously and religiously avoided.

We have already on several occasions pointed out the necessity of forming a General Staff of Labour charged with directing the activities of the Congress, of putting its resolutions into effect, and of supervising the work of organisation throughout India. With the General Staff no doubt will go the creation of a competent Secretariat both on the organising and on the executive side. But a secretariat for all India will prove an unmitigated nuisance unless proper provision is made for the collection and discovery of facts governing Labour conditions throughout India. We know that the Government have already started some such institution. But where Government happen to be the employers of Labour on a large scale, it is imperative that Labour should have its own channels of information and its own methods of enquiry. In England the intellect of the Labour movement is supplied by the Labour Reasearch Department and the idea of starting an Information Bureau at the headquarters of the Congress will, we have no doubt, appeal not only to the delegates but also to Lala Lajpat Rai whose work is a testimony to the true value of research propaganda. It must not be forgotten that we are but at the commencement of huge struggle whose intensity increases day by day. The more reason therefore that neither puerility nor selfishness, neither incompetence nor dishonesty should be countenanced by those who have the real cause of Labour at heart.

With competent leaders, with a president of the modern equipment and accomplishments of Lala Lajpat Rai the boat of Labour should head all breakers bravely—not forgetting that the work that remains to be done is not less colossal than what has been accomplished; not forgetting that, whatever the detractors may say, it is by unity, steadfast courage and the enthusiasm of a noble cause at heart, that the workers will win their freedom. The cause of Labour is undoubtedly a great cause, a noble cause. In fact it is the cause of humanity. In a country like India it also becomes sometimes a cause burdened with despair because it is burdened with poverty and misery which have turned free men into bonded slaves. But for Labour organised there is nothing to fear. If we may be allowed to convert a famous saying for our immediate purpose, we would say to the delegates who have the destinies of millions of their fellow-workers in their hands: "Workers of India, Unite! You have nothing to lose but your chains!" This is the spirit which should animate the sessions of the Congress—a Congress as unique in our history as it is fraught with immense possibilities for the good of the starving suffering, poverty-stricken, masses of India and through them of the country. Political freedom is the essential basis for all progress. But it is not enough. For political freedom, without economic freedom not only for the nation, as a whole, but for each individual composing it, will be no less burdensome a slavery for the "masses" than economic exploitation under a "foreign" rule.

TEWFIK PASHA'S MANIFESTO

We learn that Tewfik Pasha, the new Grand Vizier, has publicly expressed the hope that the new Turkish Cabinet, "though difficultly situated owing to the severe peace terms and insurrection in Anatolia, will with the assistance of the Powers succeed in terminating the fratricidal struggle between the Central Government and the Nationalists and in carrying out the terms of the Treaty of Sevres." Tewfik Pasha is a much more popular and trusted personality than was Damad Ferid Pasha, but he cannot work miracles, and nothing short of a miracle could "terminate the fratricidal struggle"—as the Grand Vizier is pleased to call it, though Hellenic Greeks have no claim to be viewed as brothers by the Turks—while "carrying out the terms of the Treaty of Sevres." Even "with the assistance of the Powers," the feat is quite impossible, unless that assistance takes the form of a revision of the Turkish Treaty. Tewfik Pasha's reference to the "severe"—he could not very well say, "unjust"—"peace terms", and in the same breath to the patriotic movement in Anatolia, which is the consequence of their unjust severity, suggests that he himself has hopes of such assistance. His predecessor, taking up a different attitude towards the Powers, expressed the same hope, and no doubt conceived it, upon more than one occasion. But he would not own that, as Tewfik Pasha implies plainly in his manifesto, all the troubles of the Central Turkish Government are of the making of the Powers. Damad Ferid Pasha, who, for some reason, had become a bitter opponent of the Committee of Union and Progress, seeing in the Anatolian movement the outcome of some subterranean work by that Committee, was prepared to call in foreign help to quell the great majority of his compatriots. To such a depth can party spirit drag a man!

With Tewfik Pasha it is different. We do not believe that he intends to make war on the Turkish patriots and his promise that the censorship shall be removed supports our theory; for the people of Constantinople, hardly less than the people of Anatolia, are in sympathy with Mustafa Kemal Pasha, as they have shown by more that one impassioned demonstration, and if the popular hero were indeed to be destroyed by force of arms it would be very unwise to remove the censorship. Has the new Grand Vizier received assurance that the only kind of help which can avail will be provided by the Powers? Can it be that the statesmen who have been deceived and influenced by wealthy Levantines into making this tremendous muddle of the Eastern question, realise their mistake, even if they do not resent their deception. The lies which were told them concerning population alone, easily ascertainable, are quite enough to raise the ire of every honest man; but Western statesmen tolerate and even use such methods, which they have come to regard as "in the game." The sentiment of national honour is alas! extinct to-day among the men who form the Governments of Europe. But it is not so in the East, where the bitter feeling rising against England is due primarily to the fact that the warlike peoples of the East, to whom their honour is the breath of life, behold her now as a dishonoured country. The Government of England has done things which no individual Englishman, not of the criminal class, would dream of doing. They have behaved not as Englishmen are supposed to behave, but like ignoble Levantines. No wonder there is anger and confusion in the East. England and India alone were the conqueror of Turkey, yet England has doled out portions of the spoil to peoples who took no part in the struggle, peoples whom the Turks could have defeated easily, while she turns a deaf ear to the prayer of peoples who took part in the struggle, and breaks the solemn promises which she had made to them. No wonder that the warlike tribes of Asia spit upon the ground and say: "The English are no longer gentlemen." There is still perhaps a chance for England to regain some part of her prestige in the Near East—at least among the Turks, who are by nature placable. We hope that the new tone which we discern in Tewfik Pasha's manifesto means that she is going to take it.

Can't.

It is some satisfaction to know that after all even the London "Times" has begun to be acquainted with the fact that the Non-Cooperation movement in India is not an ineffective movement. The journal is alarmed at "the disquieting feature of the situation" that there is "the likelihood of the proposed boycott of elections proving partially effective." "Partially effective" is good. But why lay the flattering unction to the soul? Why not realise the truth, the whole truth about the situation? And the truth is that, as far as the bulk of the people are concerned—the "Moderates" only represent a very negligible minority—the boycott has been fully effective. So much for the diagnosis. Coming to the remedies, the "Times", we are disappointed to find, is as unoriginal as ever. The suggestion that Mr. Gandhi's movements should be restricted merely proves how some people are perverse and foolish enough not to learn or forget anything. What is wrong with the "Times" and with the Moderates is that their main desire is to save the Reforms. What is required to be saved is not "Reforms", but India's honour. The Indian electorate is determined to prove that the coming elections are "a fiasco"—for the "reforms" are a bait to them to tempt them to barter away their honour. And the people of the world, pace the "Times", have sense enough to realise that a people who would sacrifice anything for the honour of their country will not be long in coming to their own. "New privileges" forsooth! Indian people beg for no "privileges" old or new. They are determined to win their rights as human beings. Let those who have still any illusion in regard to this, free their mind of can't.

Noodledom Awake.

Publicity agents of Government are expected to find work for themselves. What wonder is it that they invent meddlesome functions to justify their existence? The London "Times" is in raptures over the annual production of Dr. Rushbrooke Williams who, we predict, will one day rise to the Governorship of a province. Juniors in the trade are at a disadvantage because they haven't got any fixed work to perform and have to devise means of butting in somewhere. They are supposed to "take the public into their confidence" to use the phrase of the "Times." The egregious functionary of Bengal has now a fancy for editing lost literature. The worthy Major—they are generally indented from the Army—has addressed the following letter to certain Mahomedan officers and others:—

"Sir,

"I have the honour to enclose a copy of the pamphlet 'The Truth about the Khilafat' which includes a series of articles by the late Sir Syed Ahmed Khan upon the Khilafat. It is the desire of Government that the substance of these articles should be communicated verbally to meetings of Mussalmans whenever opportunity presents itself and discussion encouraged along the lines of Sir Syed's exposition of the subject.

"I have, etc., etc.,

"(Sd.) R. Douglas Story, Major,
"Director of Information."

Simla as Sinai.

It seems, therefore, that the Government of India will not allow Moslems to suffer through lack of religious instruction, and here we have a member of the overpaid and underworked fraternity, selecting suitable opinions for the edification of the community. A man of Major Story's calibre is scarcely competent to u[illegible] religious authorities [illegible] and we are amazed at his presumption in entering a field in which he certainly has no business. What concern is it of his to divulge the "Truth about the Khilafat"? Sir Syed Ahmed Khan was a great educationist, but he is not among the preceptors of Islam and his individual views were contested even in his time. Major Story's veneration of Sir Syed Ahmed is rather strange, but then there are officials more Moslem than the Mussulmans themselves. To contradict Syed Amir Ali, another savant—no other than Sir Valentine Chirol who is coming once more to study the unrest in India—unearthed a back-number of the "Aligarh College Magazine" in which Sir Syed Ahmed had aired his own views on Moslem history. It was considered a crushing disclosure by Sir Valentine, but Mussulmans are in no lack of instruction to require the annotations of Imperialists like Sir Valentine. We warn Government against the folly of attempting to influence the religious beliefs of the people, and Major Story ought to stop his nonsense. If he has nothing else to do, it is his and the taxpayer's fate.

Spontaneous Receptions.

Will the satraps, great and small, who shape the destinies of this land, be good enough to see that underlings do not engineer spontaneous receptions beyond a certain limit? Recently Mr. Stokes gave us a glimpse of the harassments borne by people during the Viceregal march from Simla. The responsibility belongs to the tour-agents, but it would be an act of clemency if the great personages themselves cautioned them that royal honours might on occasions be omitted and the people spared some of the consequent oppression. Lord Ronaldshay is due at Jessore on 28th November and local functionaries have been busy over the affair. Mr. Syed Ahmed Hossain of Jessore writes as follows to the "Patrika":—

"The S.D.O. of Magura, in Jessore, has, recently issued orders to the Presidents, Panchayets, to collect a sum of Rs. 50 from each union in order to defray the expenses of the reception of his Excellency's arrival at Jessore on the 28th November, 1920, and accordingly every President is demanding from the people subscriptions, failing which they (people) will be dealt with severely.

"The people are already suffering much owing to famine. This will cause not only trouble, but starvation to many if the subscriptions are actually realized.

"The attention of the higher authorities is respectfully drawn to this matter."

The execution may be justified, perhaps, by mamul, but we suggest to the authorities that the infernal system should cease.

The Need of the Hour.

We heartily recommend to our readers the information and advice contained in three admirable leaflets issued by the Animals' Friend Society, Ferozepore Cantonment—"Humane Education—The Need of the Hour", "Bands of Mercy" and "Training versus Chaining." The last, relating to the treatment of dogs, contains the following passage: "There are many dog-owners who will not take any trouble to teach their dogs to respect other animals and human beings, and because they are not prepared to check their dogs from doing mischief, the dogs are put upon a chain and kept tied up for the whole or the greater part of their lives. Dogs are very much like children. They can be taught in the same way. They want to be treated with kindness, they like to be petted, and dislike to be ignored or harshly spoken to. Imprisonment for life is a terrible infliction for a dog, and he often has to suffer it because his owner has not trained him wisely in his youth." And there follows some extremely sensible advice as to the best way to keep a dog that needs restraint.

"A People Like Unto Ourselves."

"Prevention is better than Prosecution", says another leaflet. And cruelty to animals, being chiefly the result of ignorance, can only be prevented by education and, we would add, improvement of the circumstances in which people live. People who live under very wretched conditions, and are themselves treated cruelly, can hardly be expected to be kind to animals; for cruelty begets cruelty all the world over, and the oppressed becomes the bully when he gets the chance. We wish the Society all success in their undertaking, and heartily endorse their appeal to the people of India to start Bands of Mercy in every town and every school. The religions of India are upon the side of kindness to animals and texts of scripture might, we think, be used by the Society; for instance, this verse of the Coran: "And there is not an animal upon the earth nor a flying creature flying upon wings, but is a people like unto yourselves. We (Allah) have neglected nothing in the Book of Our Decrees. Unto their Lord they shall be gathered."

Proprietary High School.

The Proprietary High School which celebrates its diamond jubilee next week, is one of the few institutions of its kind which have a distinguished history of their own. It was founded in 1860 by half a dozen most prominent Parsi and Hindu citizens. It was exclusively "proprietary" and intended for the sons of wealthy parents. But after the aftermath of 1865 the proprietors voluntarily gave up their trust and sold the school to Mr. Hormusji, a distinguished Elphinstonian, who may be said to be the real founder of the school. He carried the school to a height of prosperity never before known. His son is now one of the proprietors of the school. We congratulate the proprietors and the students, past and present, of the school on the success it has achieved, and hope it will continue to prosper.

COAL STRIKE SETTLED.

NEW DEMAND BY MINERS' EXECUTIVE.

VARYING PHASES OF NEGOTIATIONS.

TERMS WILL NEED RATIFICATION OF BALLOT.

(REUTER'S TELEGRAM.)

LONDON, Oct. 28.
Recd. 12-55 p.m., Oct. 29.

The settlement of the strike was concluded to-day between the Government, the Miners Executive and the owners. The terms, so far as the miners are concerned, will require ratification of ballot.

SERIOUS SITUATION AVERTED

WHAT WOULD HAVE BEEN THE EFFECT OF THE STRIKE.

(REUTER'S SPECIAL SERVICE.)

LONDON, Oct. 28.
Recd. 2 p.m. Oct. 29.

Although the coal strike settlement needs ratification of ballot of the miners, matters are sufficiently advanced for a general review of the dispute.

MOST IMPORTANT KEY INDUSTRY.

It is impossible, of course to exaggerate the serious character of the strike which brought to an absolute standstill the most important key indutry in Britain and was rapidly affecting every other. That the general public was less inconvenienced than by the railway strike year ago, was solely due to the fact that the results of the latter were immediate and obvious to everyone, whereas, the effect of closing the coalmines is gradual and cumulative. Nevertheless, the imminent danger of widespread unemployment on the present occasion may be gauged from the fact that by the end of the strike not merely were the iron and steel works paralysed everywhere but industries so apparently remote as the Staffordshire potteries and the Lancashire cotton mills were compelled to discharge many thousands of workers.

TEMPER AND SELF-RESTRAINT OF PEOPLE.

Considering all this nothing has been more remarkable than the temper and self-restraint of the people including the miners themselves. The latter, while universally obedient to the strike orders, were largely ignorant of the exact causes of the strike and felt no overwhelming grievance. Their enforced leisure coincided with a glorious weather and was spent largely in gardening and football. In nearly every case they co-operated with owners in preserving the safety of the pits, where in many instances, tools ponies etcetera were left in the confidence of an early settlement.

RAILWAYMEN'S ATTITUDES.

With the exception of a few cases of pilfering of coal and potatoes no crime occurred anywhere and there was no sabotage whatever. The railwaymen, whose attitude has been much discussed, showed general disinclination to join in the strike and the action of their leaders in postponing strike notices was probably due as much to this known disposition of their followers, as to their own moderation. While he bulk of the railway branches passed resolutions leaving the decision to the Central Executive, some actually protested formally against the suggestion of a sympathetic strike as due to Bolshevik element and unworthy of the sacrifices of the war.

A LAMENTABLE SET BACK.

Meanwhile the bulk of the population always inexpressive, but making itself heard in various places through the Discharged Soldiers' Associations and the "Keep the Peace" movement showed unmistakable determination to tolerate no disorder.

The strike had been a lamentable setback at such a time, but has shown not unhopeful signs of greater future production and popular steadiness.

CHANGE OF ATTIUDE OF SOME OF MINERS' EXECUTIVE

EMERGENCY MEETING OF CABINET COUNCIL.

(REUTER'S TELEGRAM.)

LONDON, Oct. 27.
Recd. 12-40 p.m., Oct. 29.

People went home to-night awaiting only the official notification that the coal strike had been settled but the morning will show that they were mistaken. At what was expected to be a wind-up conference at Downing Street this evening, the Miners' Executive sprang a new demand in connection with the proposal for a permanent settlement. This was accompanied by the change of attitude by certain members of the Executive and fresh adjournment until to-morrow was consequently necessary. In the meantime an emergency meeting of the Cabinet Council will be held. The Trade Union Congress is marking time and will meet again to-morrow.

NO FINAL SETTLEMENT YET

CONFERENCE BELIEVED TO HAVE REACHED SATISFACTORY CONCLUSION.

(REUTER'S TELEGRAM.)

LONDON, Oct. 27.
Recd. 12 noon, Oct. 29.

Owing to a new demand of the miners at the last moment the negotiations have not reached final settlement and the Conference adjourned until noon to morrow.

LATER.

Although the settlement of coal strike is not yet officially announced there is every reason to believe that the negotiations between the Government and the miners have reached a satisfactory conclusion and an announcement to this effect is expected at any moment.

AGREEMENT BETWEEN MINERS AND GOVT. PROBABLE

WAGES TO BE BASED ON TURN-OVER OF REVENUE.

(REUTER'S SPECIAL SERVICE.)

LONDON, Oct. 27.
Recd. 9-30 a.m., Oct. 29.

Optimistic feeling prevails as the result of yesterday's coal negotiations and a settlement to-day is regarded as probable. It is anticipated that consequently the miners will assure the Trade Union Congress which is meeting to-day for the purpose of considering how best to help the miners, that its intervention is unnecessary.

In the event of the miners and the Government agreeing, the terms will have to be submitted to the National Delegate Conference and it is anticipated that the Miners' Executive will be able strongly to recommend acceptance. It is unlikely that such Conference could be called before the end of the week as the delegates would have to be summoned from all parts of the country.

The proposed agreement generally follows the outline already cabled to India with the addition that the wages shall henceforth be based on the turnover of revenue which arrangement resembles the old Welsh sliding scales but on the national instead of local basis. The increased wages will not increase the price of coal to consumer. The wages will be reviewed at the end of a year by the National Wages Board.

EMERGENCY POWERS BILL IN COMMITTEE STAGE.

INCREASED AUTHORITY OF PARLIAMENT.

(REUTER'S TELEGRAM.)

LONDON, Oct. 27.
Recd. 9-30 a.m., Oct. 29.

During the Committee Stage of the Emergency Powers Bill in the House of Commons the Government made several concessions increasing the authority of Parliament under it. Parliament must now be summoned within five days after the proclamation of emergency, instead of a fortnight originally proposed and the regulations will be valid for a week only, instead of a fortnight unless sanctioned by Parliament. The proclamation of emergency must be renewed every month.

IMPENDING TROUBLE IN RUSSIA.

COUNTER-REVOLUTION FEARED.

MOSCOW IN INTENSIFIED STATE OF SEIGE.

(REUTER'S TELEGRAM.)

LONDON, Oct. 27.
Recd. 12-40 p.m., Oct. 29.

Reports of the impendinig trouble in Russia are contained in a Helsingfors telegram which states that the Soviet is very anxious, fearing a counter-revolution and has placed Moscow in an intensified state of siege and has issued a proclamation stating that no mercy will be show to the insurgents.

The Bolshevik Moscow journal, "Isvestia" reports that between July 21st and August 21st, 1183 people were shot despite the fact that capital punishment is supposed to be officially abolished.

INVITATION TO VISIT AUSTRALIA.

M. CLEMENCEAU DECLINES.

(REUTER'S TELEGRAM.)

LONDON, Oct. 27.
Recd. 12-40 p.m., Oct. 29.

Melbourne.—M. Clemenceau has declined Mr. Hughes' invitation to visit Australia but promised to include Australia in a further tour next year.

HOW THE DELTA COLLIDED

(REUTER'S TELEGRAM.)

LONDON, Oct. 27.
Recd. 1-30 p.m., Oct. 29.

The P. and O. Steamer, Delta, which was on journey from Bombay to London collided with the British steamer, Wimbledon. It is reported that she had anchored in the sea reach in fog when the collision occurred. The Delta was holed on the port side her stokehold was filling and she was reached at the Chapman Sands off the Canvey Island. It appears that most of her hundred passengers disembarked at Plymouth. The remainder were taken off by tender after the collision and brought to Tilbury. The Wimbledon has passed Gravesend damaged.

FALL IN RUBBER-PRICE.

FAILURE OF A FIRM OF DEALERS.

(REUTER'S TELEGRAM.)

LONDON, Oct. 27.
Recd. 9-30 a.m., Oct. 29.

Owing to the fall in the price of rubber, it is reported that an old established firm of rubber dealers in Mincing lane has failed with the liabilities estimated at from £100,000 to £200,000 sterling.

Other brokers are taking over the commitments at a fixed price. It is understood that the ability of certain other firms to carry on will depend on the assistance from the banks.

REDUCING FUTURE OUTPUT

OUTSIDE PRODUCERS LIKELY TO AGREE TO POLICY.

(REUTER'S TELEGRAM.)

LONDON, Oct. 27.
Recd. 12-40 p.m., Oct. 29.

At a meeting of the Council of the Rubber Growers' Association it was announced that over eightynine per cent of producing acreage owned by the members of the Association, domiciled in Europe, was included in the signed forms of assent already received to the proposal to reduce output. The scheme therefore comes into operation on November 1st. The Council state they are satisfied that an adequate proportion of producers outside the Association will adhere to the policy.

NO SEIZURE OF GERMAN PROPERTY IN ENGLAND.

ADVERSE PARIS PRESS COMMENTS.

(REUTER'S TELEGRAM.)

LONDON, Oct. 27.
Recd. 12 noon, Oct. 29.

Paris.—The "Echo de Paris" says that the French Government intends to protest in Britain, against the decision not to confiscate German property in England in the event of Germany defaulting. The Paris press comments adversely on the decision and sees in it invitation to Germany to consider the Treaty of Versailles a scrap of paper.

THE LATE SIR H. S. CUNNINGHAM'S ESTATE.

(REUTER'S TELEGRAM.)

LONDON, Oct. 27.
Recd. 12 noon. Oct. 29.

Sir H. S. Cunningham left £35,871 sterling.

BRITISH ARMY OF OCCUPATION.

INDIAN TROOPS ABROAD.

AT MONTHLY COST OF £4,230,000.

(REUTER'S TELEGRAM.)

LONDON, Oct. 26.
Recd. 9-30 a.m., Oct. 29.

Replying in the House of Commons to Mr. Parkison Mr. Churchill stated that at present the numbers of British and Indian troops in Mesopotamia including North West Persia were 17,500 and 83,500 respectively, at Constantinople 11,000 and 8,000, in Egypt 12,000 and 14,000 and in Palestine 6,500 and 16,000. The approximmate monthly costs in sterling were respectively £2,500,000 £495,000 £625,000 and £610,000.

NO CHANCE OF REDUCING TROOPS IN MESPOT.

MR. CHURCHILL ON THEIR FUTURE DUTIES.

(REUTER'S TELEGRAM.)

LONDON, Oct. 27.
Recd. 12 noon. Oct. 29.

Replying in the House of Commons to Mr .Alien Parkinson, Mr. Churchill said there did not seem much chance of reduction of the troops in Mesopotamia for some months as the troops would be actively engaged in quenching the rebellion and after that in disarming the tribes, but he hoped that the garrison would be substantially reduced in the next financial year.

THE LATE LORD MAYOR OF CORKS

VERDICT AT CORONER'S INQUEST.

(REUTER'S TELEGRAM.)

LONDON, Oct. 27.
Recd. 9-30 a.m., Oct. 29.

At the inquest on the Lord Mayer of Cork the jury returned a verdict that he died from heart failure and acute delirium following scurvy due to exhaustion from prolonged refusal to take food.

BUILDING TRADES UNION CONFERENCE.

REFUSAL TO SUSPEND REGULATIONS IN FAVOUR OF EX-SERVICE MEN.

(REUTER'S TELEGRAM.)

LONDON, Oct. 27.
Recd. 9-30 a.m., Oct. 29.

The Conference of the Building Trades Union at Manchester reaffirmed their refusal to suspend the trade union regulation so as to allow the ex-service men to be engaged to provide labour for the solution of the housing problem. The decision is important in view of Mr. Lloyd George's warning last week.

HEAD-QUARTERS OF LEAGUE OF NATIONS.

REMOVED FROM LONDON TO GENEVA

(REUTER'S TELEGRAM.)

LONDON, Oct. 27.
Recd. 12 noon, Oct. 29.

The decision to remove the Headquarters of the League of Nations from London to Geneva was carried into effect to-day when the Secretariat departed by a special train from Victoria en route for Geneva.

DEMPSEY V. CARPENTIER

CONTRACT FOR A BOXING MATCH COMPLETED.

(REUTER'S TELEGRAM.)

LONDON, Oct. 27.
Recd. 1-30 p.m., Oct. 29.

The contract for the match between Dempsey and Carpentier which is being signed to-day stipulates for a meeting between February 1st 1921 and July 1st 1921 for a ten or fifteen round bout prize of a record purse and a percentage of moving picture receipts. It is officially estimated that the fighters will divide half a million dollars. The contest will probably be held in the Madison Square Garden but the contract does not prevent it from being held in Canada, Mexico Cuba or the West Indies. The contract was completed after a lengthy conference between Messrs. Kearns, Deschamps, Cochran and William Brady.

UNION OF ENGLAND AND INDIA.

SOURCE OF FUTURE OF THE GLOBE.

HOME RULE TO INDIA---BRITAIN'S AIM.

ECONOMIC FREEDOM—THE SUPREME NEED.

COL. WEDGWOOD'S APPEAL TO INDIAN AND ENGLISHMEN.

"END HATRED AND RECONCILE."

To meet Col. J. C. Wedgwood and Mrs. Wedgwood, Mr. Jamnadas Dwarkadas gave dinner at the Taj Mahal Hotel, Bombay, last night. A large company sat down dinner, among thase present being Sir Chimanlal Setalvad, Pandit Motilal Nehru, Mr. and Mrs. M. A. Jinnah, the Hon. Mr. Purshotam Thakoredas, Mr. and Mrs. Cowasji Jehangir the Hon. Mr. C. V. Mehta, Mr. Rahimtulla Currimbhoy, Mr. and Mrs. Tricumdas Dharamsey, Mr. Omar Sobani, Mr. M. Picktnall, Mr. S. A. Brelvi, Dr. Deshmukh, Mr. H. P. Mody, Mr. L. R. Tairsee, Mr. and Mrs. Mavji Govindji Seth, Mr. Madhavji Dharamsey, Miss Joshi Mr Kanji Dwarkadas, Dr. Sathaye, Mr. Mirza A. M. Khan, Mr. Byramji R. B. Jijibhoy, Dr. Trilokekar, Mr. B. P. Wadia, Mr. K. M. Munshi, Mr. N. M. Joshi, Mr. Vithaldas D. Govindji, Mr. Gulabchand Devchand, Mr Jamnadas M. Mehta, Dr. S. S. Batliwala, Mr. Fazla and others.

MR. JAMNADAS DWARKADAS.

After the loyal toast had been duly honoured, Mr. Jamnadas Dwarkadas, asking the assembly to drink to the health of the distinguished guest of the evening and Mrs. Wedgwood, said they were there, men belonging to different parties holding different political views but with one common goal in view namely the attainment of responsible government for India, and they all agreed in this that they ought to join hands in appreciating the services to their country of any friend who worked with the earnestness, sincerity and devotion of Col. Wedgwood. (Cheers.) Last year, when he was in England he has had the privilege of enjoying the hospitality of Colonel and Mrs. Wedgwood and he was not exaggerating when he said that they proved ideal hosts and though thousands of miles away from India he never once during his stay with them felt that he was away from home,

COL. WEDGWOOD—CHAMPION OF LIBERTY.

He thought he need not dwell at any length on the services which Colonel Wedgwood had rendered to India. There was hardly any Indian, interested in the welfare of his country, who was not grateful from the bottom of his heart to their gallant friend who for the last so many years had been the spokesman for India (cheers)—in the House of Commons. Colonel Wedgwood was a champion of liberty, and a champion of liberty of a character which some of those who posed as such would do well to imitate. The Colonel was a lover of liberty and believed in the right of everybody to think and speak in accordance with the dictates of his conscience, and whilst holding strongly to his own opinions and remaining firm where principles were concerned, he had the courage not only of appreciating the standpoint of others who differed from him but of respecting it.

HIS SENSE OF FAIRNESS.

Continuing, Mr. Jamnadas gave an instance he had witnessed of Colonel Wedgwood's sense of fairness and desire to respect the opinion of those who differed from his views. The Colonel had braved and faced the horrors of war, had been in the trenches and in the front line of battlefield and was one of those few brave and gallant men who had won the Distinguished Service Order. He supported England's participation in the war in the cause of Freedom and Justice, and yet at a meeting held in London when a conscientious objector was howled down by the audience he had the sense of fairness to get up and tell the audience that just as they had heard other views it was equally their duty to hear and respect the views of that man who had been to prison for the sake of his views, and he added that he would support his candidature if he sought election to Parliament. It struck him (the speaker) there and then that the Colonel was a real lover of liberty. The same note was struck by the Colonel in his speeches in the House of Commons and a high compliment was paid him during the Indian debate by the Earl of Winterton, who said that it might not be possible for them to see eye to eye with him in all matters, but that if all of them should be as earnest, as sincere and as straightforward as he was, the politics of [illegible] purified and England would [illegible] for it. And this compliment was cordially received by the House.

HIS FIGHT FOR INDEPENDENCE.

Proceeding, Mr. Jamnadas said Col. Wedgwood's services to India could not be exaggerated. When he (Col. Wedgwood) and others visited England last year they worried him and did not give him a moment's rest, furnishing him with information and asking him to demand Home Rule for India, in the House of Commons. And though however much did he need rest, he always received them cordially and listened to them patiently. The Colonel fought for them in the House not only for Indian Reforms, but rendered yeomen's service to this country at the time of the Mesopotamia Committee's report (cheers)—and he had a good deal to do by way of giving advice to ministers in drafting the famous Declaration of the 20th of August of 1917. He had proved himself a true friend of India and the country would always gratefully remember the splendid services he had rendered. (Loud cheering.)

COL. WEDGWOOD'S REPLY.

Col. Wedgwood, who was most cordially received on his rising to reply to the toast of his health, thanked Mr. Jamnadas and the assembly for the honour they had done him, and said one thing he would never be able to think and that was that the Indians did not exceed other races in the quality of gratitude. He had come to India not for the sake of the Indians, but for that of English traditions which to his mind means love of liberty. (Cheers.) Continuing, Col. Wedgwood asked what was the duty of India at the present time. He said every Indian ought, unless he had lost all sense of public spirit, to work with heart and soul for the liberty of India. (Cheers.) He did not mind whether it was Home Rule or independence. This was immaterial because the union must be based on self-interest and their wishes would not affect that interest. He believed that the connection between England and India would be found to be in the interest of both countries. (Cheers.)

FUTURE OF WORLD ON INDIA-ENGLAND UNION.

He was fundamentally averse to race prejudice or passion whether it came from India or England. He believed that the whole future of the Globe depended on the union of the free peoples of the British Commonwealth with that great branch of the English-speaking race, America. And India representing one-fifth of the human race could not fail to be a predominant partner in that great union. On that union would depend the peace of the world.

END HATRED AND RECONCILE.

Proceeding, Col. Wedgwood said he was not a Nationalist. They were. But when they got freedom they ought to give up nationalism and go for internationalism. It seemed to him that there was in this country at the present moment hatred, hatred not only beween Englishmen and Indians, but between the different sections of the latter. All men of good spirit should come together, ought to effect a compromise and put an end to that hatred. It appeared to him that the hatred was growing and the gulf widening. They should make an effort for reconciliation on the part of both sides, Englishmen and Indians. He appealed to both sides to do all they could to bridge that gulf.

HOME RULE TO INDIA—BRITAIN'S AIM.

In a short time he hoped to publish his views at some length on this question When he did so, he sincerely hoped all those who sympathised with that idea would do their best to help that movement and see what could be done. (Cheers.) He believed what the British Government meant to do was to give Home Rule to India at the earliest possible moment. He was afraid this was believed by the Extremists as by the moderates. He was not surprised at their [illegible] He thought that if a definite [illegible] mised and if it was believed that the promise would be carried out there was a

BOMBAY INDUSTRIAL CRISIS.

PEOPLE'S INCREASING SUFFERINGS.

RELIEF NOT IN VIEW.

It is difficut to form an idea when the four strikes in Bombay will come to an end. The general public has suffered terribly owing to these strikes and now it seems they are unable to stand any more sufferings and inconveniences owing to this struggle between Labour and Capital. The four strikes viz.—Postal, Telegraph Tramway and Gas-workers' have made four essential necessities of a civilized people impossible of being availed of. The outstanding feature of the present strike is that capitalists are trying manipulate their abnormal profits and increas by leaps and bounds at the expense of labourer who is clamouring for a living wage. But both sides seem so firm and unyielding as to make the specator quite pessimistic as to when the strike would come to an end.

THE POSTAL DEADLOCK.

The oldest of the strikes namely that of the Post and Telegraph peons counted the 40th day of its existence yesterday. In the meanwhile no effort was made by any of those who could really put an and to it as early as it broke out. The suffereing public have time and again given expression to their bitter feelings at their inconveniences which were not the least remedied or lessened by the present arrangements of the Postal authorities, but the latter have all along turned a deaf ear to their cry.

POSTAL NOTICES

With effect from Monday the 2nd. November 1920, the Colaba Post Office will effect two house-to-house deliever ies—one at 9-30 a.m. the other at 3-0 p.m. and shall also accept for despatch all kinds of parcels (except insured) between the hours of 11-30 a.m. and 3-30 p.m.

2. The street letter boxes situated in the Colaba Locality (beginning from Colaba Point and ending at the B. B. and C. I. Railway and G. I. P. Railway Goods Offices near the Cotton Green) are also cleared twice daily at 9-30 a.m. and 3-0 p.m.

POSTAL DELIVERY AT JACOB-CIRCLE

The Jacob Circle P. O. is issuing two regular house-to-house deliveries of unregistered correspondence daily at 8 a.m. and 4-30 p.m. In addition to these, letters are also delivered from the delivery centres.

A house-to-house delivery of registered letters, parcels and money orders is also effected daily from 11 a.m. to 5 p.m.

GAS WORKERS' STRIKE.

The strike which comes next to the Postal deadlock, is that of the Gasworkers. Till yesterday there was no improvement marked in the situation of this strike too. As one would have thought the few new recruits of the Gas Company have now really got tired of their present job which they had been induced to take up at the beginning on the temptation of being fed with birianies and other oriental delicacies and provided with sleeping accommodation in the Company's premises. Some of these mercenaries have come out now, and others are also thinking of getting rid of this 'tiresome job' which they think to be a nuisance in comparison with their original profession.

GAS STRIKERS CHARGED WITH INTIMIDATION.

At the Esplanade Police Court before Mr. A. H. S. Aston, yesterday, Jamir and Tejmal, two lamp-lighters, now on strike and Anant Ramchandra, an outside, were charged by Mr. A. Burch, Manager, the Bombay Gas Company, with intimidating the workers of the Gas Company.

Mr. Taylor, Solicitor, appeared for the complainant while Mr. Dhondy, pleader, instructed by Mr. Ginwalla, Solicitor, appeared for the accused.

On the case being called Mr. Dhondy applied for an adjournment on the ground that the accused were served with summons very late and he was not prepared with the evidence.

Mr. Taylor, opposing the application said that the matter was of considerable urgency and that owing to this sort of intimidation street lights could not be lit.

His worship however granted an adjournment till the 3rd proximo.

THE TRAM STRIKE.

The Tramway strike is also going on. The company has not as yet been able to face the situation successfully. The middle and poorer classes have almost discarded the use of tram cars as the 2nd themselves unable to afford to pay for a fresh tocket at every change-station.

The Company yesterday resumed service along Mazagaon, Grant Road route, but the Dadar, Parel, Jacob Circle and Sandhurst Road lines are still remaining suspended.

AN IGNORANT OUTBURST.

TO THE EDITOR OF "THE CHRONICLE."

Sir,—To a jaundiced eye everything appears yellow, and so it evidently does to Mr. N. V. Sarma who has come down with a vengeance on Mr. Baptista in this morning's columns of the "Times of India." Among other things he has the hardihood to say that the "talk that he (Mr. Baptista) was assaulted by the Pathans is more of a fiction for the credulous." Mr. Sarma and men of his kidney will, of course, put down everything that comes from Mr. Baptista and his supporters to 'fiction.'' I would, however, advise Mr. Sarma to read Mr. Boyd's version of the affair published in "The Chronicle" of the 26th instant, and he will find to his shame that the Police Commissioner of Bombay has admitted the assault on Mr. Baptista and has not contradicted the staement that it was an English Officer of the Bombay Police that actually saved him. Will Mr. Sarma be honest enough to apologise after this for his rash and unwarranted statement of the assault on Mr. Baptista being only a "fiction"?

Coming to his remarks about the Postal strike, it was this very gentleman that wrote in the "Times of India" soon after the strike had begun suggesting a via media between the Postmen's demands and the Government offer. In other words, he admitted that the postmen had a grievance and to please both the parties he suggested a middle course. After sleeping over this for over a month why has he suddenly changed his altitude and now advises Mr. Baptista to ask the men to go to work immediately and then lay their grievances before the public of Bombay? Can Mr. Sarma coscientiously say that the postmen went on strike without having recourse to all the constitutional means at their disposal? Why Mr. Sarma even went further then Mr. Baptista, who had requested Government only to reconsider their decision whereas Mr. Sarma had actually suggested a new scale of pay. Mr. Baptista received no reply to his appeal, but the postmen of Madras are decidedly better of. When they threatened to go on strike, the Postmaster-General at once promised to reconsider their case and thus averted a strike. Had this been done in the case of the Bombay men the strike here could also have been averted. The Bombay post men's case is further strengthened by the disclosures made by "a Bombay witness" in an open letter to the President of the Postal Committee published in this morning's "Chronicle." Mr. Sarma would do well to read this letter and study its contents, before he again attempts to run down gentlemen who are doing their best at the rick of the lives, to alleviate the miserable condition of the labourers of Bombay.

I quite agree with Mr. Sarma that it is certainly no pride, not even to a Christian to see honest hardworking men converted into beggars and criminals. But if this should happen the people of Bombay will certainly not hold Mr. Baptista responsible for this, but will bame the Christian Government that professes to be the Ma-Bap of the masses but grudges to give them a few rupees more for their daily bread.—Yours, et

ALIGARH COLLEGE AFFAIRS

SITUATION MORE SERIOUS.

MR. GANDHI'S PRESENCE AT INAUGURATION CEREMONY

(ASSOCIATED PRESS.)

ALIGARH, Oct. 28.

The situation in the Aligarh College is growing more serious. The principal has notified the students to leave their boarding house immediately. Old boys went together to request Mr. Mohamed Ali to withdraw peacefully, but he has taken possession of one wing of the boarding house and refused consultation with the Old Boys. It is understood that the Principal will formally request him to quit to-night.

Mr. Gandhi is expecod to arive during the night to-day to help at the inauguration of the National University. His presence will finally decide the course of action to be taken by Mr. Mohammed Ali and his supporters.

The Trustees are holding consultation to practical steps to be taken to relieve the situation. It is understood that they have decided to not firmly in the matter.

GUIDANCE OF MUSHRIK QUESTIONED

(ASSOCIATED PRESS.)

ALIGARH, Oct. 28.

At a meeting of the Trustees of the College yesterday Maulana Mahiburahman Khan, a Trustee and Secretary of the Theological Board of the College, questioned the wisdom of following the words of a Mushrik in religious matters and challenged the Ulamas to show from the Scriptures if the guidance of a Mushrik in religious matters was permissible.

The Trustees have not yet dispersed and are considering further measures against future encroachments of College discipline.

A FATHER'S APPROVAL

(From a Correspondent.)

ALIGARH, Oct. 28.

The father of a third year student of the Aligarh College has not only approved that he should remain at Aligarh and study as a member of the independent Muslim University into which the College is to be transformed on the 29th October, but has also remitted to him onehundred Rupees to be handed over to the Khilafat Committee in aid of all the new activities.

ALIGARH MUSLIMS SUPPORT ALI BROTHERS.

TRUSTEES' DECISION CONDEMNED

(FROM A CORRESPONDENT.)

ALIGARH, Oct. 29.

The Musalmans of Aligarh heard with indignation that the Trustees in their meeting of the 27th October in addition to other resolution passed a vote of censure in some form against the Ali Brothers and other leaders. In the evening they held a meeting in front of Jama Masjid. Some ten thousand attended the meeting, many Hindus being present. The following resolution was unanimously passed:—

This mass meeting of the Musalmans of Aligarh whole heartedly supporting the Non-cooperation movement expresses its regret at the news that some Trustees of the Aligarh College assembled in a meeting resolved not to give up Government grant and the affiliation with its university. This meeting condemns the action of those Trustees who opposed this religious movement and while welcoming the establishment of a free Muslim university to be inaugurated to-morrow expresses its profound confidence in the supporters of the scheme and promises them all kinds of support.

DAYANAND HIGH SCHOOL.

STUDENTS DEMAND DISAFFILIATION

(FROM A CORRESPONDENT.)

AJMER, Oct. 29.

The students of the Dayanand High School, Ajmer assembled in the Aryasamaj hall unanimously resolved that their school should stop receiving government aid the managing committee of the school met to discuss the situation Mr. Bhavanas Pundit Hamirmal president, Aryasamaj said "Why should we remain slaves by receiving government aid, Mr. Chunilal said the school should be closed. Mr. Narainuas said that it is against Maharshi Dayanand's mission to run the school under the present system. Doctor Shankersarma said that government aid should be refused Mr. Surajkaran admited that the Gurukul system was the best system and should be adopted.

Mr. Mathania opposed bitterly, but when cross examined had to admit that Aryasamaj does not derive any benefit under the present system of education Mr. Kanwar Chandkaran Sardas' letter for stopping government aid and his scheme of nationalising the school, making Hindi as the medium of instruction, introducing compartmental examinations and technical training will soon be discussed by the school committee. The Aryasamaj is considering the matter not as a political body but because the entire system is against its principles the history taught in schools defame the ancient Aryans as beef eaters and wine drinkers.

Dayanand school students have sent written requisitions demanding disaffiliation and nationalization according to Vedic dharma. Doctor Ansari and Mr. Shankerlal are reaching this on the 1st of November.

LAHORE AND AMRITSAR COLLEGES

(ASSOCIATED PRESS.)

LAHORE, Oct. 28.

The excitement, which has prevailed among the students in Lahore for the last few days in connection with the Non-Cooperation movement, seems to be waning. The situation in the Islamia College is stated to be much more hopeful and it is believed that the worst of the crisis is over although it will be some time before normal conditions are re-established. When the Islamia College closed, the majority had definitely declared against Non-Cooperation as had the College Committee and the leading officials and members of the Anjuman General Council in Lahore.

In the D. A. V. College, out of 1,024 students on the rolls of the college, only 24 have written to the Principal announcing the withdrawal of their names. The parents of the boys have been communicated with while almost all of them are attending their respective classes. Normal work of the College is being carried on regularly.

The position in the Khalsa College, Amritsar, remains much the same and there has been no improvement in the situation.

A MAULVI'S LAND FOR FEITED.

FOR JOINING KHILAFAT AGITATION.

(FROM OUR CORRESPONDENT.)

HYDERABAD, Oct. 28.

Participation in Khilafat agitation has resulted in the forfeiture of land belonging to Moulvie Mahkumdin of Jamesabad.

Desiring some time ago to leave for Northern India he applied for leave and appointed his agent for the land as required by the terms of the restricted tenure under which he had the land. The agent's appointment was sanctioned by the Deputy Collector. He returned to Sind to join Khilafat Conference. Some weeks afterwards the Deputy Collector wrote to him the following letter.—

"You applied to the Mukhtiarkar of Jametabad on the 28th August, 1918, of six months leave in order to go to upper India. You went away before the leave was sanctioned. Besides that from inquiries it is found that you had taken part in an artificial conference at Sukkur and that the conference passed a resolution that the British Government should not take Arabia from the Arabs and should hand it over to the Turks. For these reasons the Collector of Thar and Parker district has cancelled your survey numbers 172 194, 195 and 198 and given them to Thakur Mihaji. If you have been of good behaviour in the Panjab all your time the question of restoring the land to you would be considered on your return. This is for your information". The Thakur Mihaji referred to above was the very man who had been appoined agent by the Moulvi.

MR. BRELVI AND THE "CHRONICLE".

TO THE EDITOR OF "THE CHRONICLE".

Sir,—I entirely share the views expressed in the columns of your paper by Messrs. Laxmidas Tairsee and B. F. Bharucha on Saturday last. It is high time we come on a public platform to thank him for the remarkable way in which he conducted the paper during the tumultous times. His honest criticism, his impartiality in journalism, his condemnation of methods bureaucratic, be they Indian or alien, all these qualities have earned for him a reputation which it is impossible for us Indians to forget. He has also shown to Anglo-Indians how Indians can manage a paper if the charge is entrusted to them.—Yours, etc.

TEWFIK PASHA'S MANIFESTO.

FOR TERMINATING FRATRICIDAL STRUGGLE.

APPEAL TO PRESS AND PUBLIC.

(REUTER'S SPECIAL SERVICE.)

LONDON, Oct. 27.
Recd. 2 p.m. Oct. 29.

A Constantinople message to "The Times" says that Tewfik Pasha has issued a manifesto expressing the hope that the new Cabinet, though difficulty situated owing to the severe peace terms and the insurrection in Anatolia, will with the assistance of the Powers succeed in terminating the fratricidal struggle between the Central Government and the Nationalists and in carrying out the terms of Treaty of Sevres. The Grand Vizier has promised shortly to abolish censorship and has appealed to the press and the public to avoid all manifestations calculated to embarrass the Government.

POLISH—LITHUANIAN QUESTION.

COUNCIL LEAGUE OF NATIONS UNABLE TO SOLVE.

(REUTER'S SPECIAL SERVICE.)

LONDON, Oct. 27.
Recd. 9-30 a.m., Oct. 29.

Brussels.—The Council of the League of Nations at present meeting here is confronted with the Polish-Lithuan question and complications induced by the action of General Zeligowski. It is stated, however, that the Council is unable to induce either the Lithuanians or the Poles to undertake military action against Zeligiowski. It is understood that the Council, unable to appeal to force, has decided to postpone settlement, which can only take the form of economic pressure.

FURTHER ATTEMPT TO SETTLE POLISH-LITHUANIAN QUESTION

(REUTER'S TELEGRAM.)

LONDON, Oct. 27.
Recd. 12 noon, Oct. 29.

Brussels.—It is now announced that the Council of League of Nations is making further attempt to settle the Polish-Lithuanian trouble and is again hearing representatives of both the countries, to-day.

UNION OF ENGLAND AND INDIA.

bility of reconciliation not only between Englishmen and Indians, but between the Moderates and the Extremists. It might be that the Government would not give that pledge. In that case the Moderates and the Extremists, backed by the Labour Party in England, would all work together. If it was granted by Government, the Moderates and Extremists would again work togethen to prepare for Home Rule. If the Extremists could not accept peace on these terms it seemed to him that India would continue to be split on the Non-Cooperation question and British Labour would wash their hands off the struggle.

NEED OF ECONOMIC FREEDOM.

Continuing, the speaker said that when India got self-government within the British Commonwealth, her power would be enormous. But then, he wished them to remember that beyond political freedom there was a greater freedom—the economic freedom. The Labour Party in England had two [illegible] which ought to appeal to all decent men—namely the brotherhood of man and economic justice for workers. Workers were entitled in asking for the full reward of their labour. Justice should be done to those underdogs, the workers. But when they dealt with economic freedom, they had to do not only justice. Justice alone was not enough. Besides justice there should be love and understanding.

GOVT. NOT AN END IN ITSELF.

They should see that men loved each other, for human nature, when they got at it, was thoroughly good. He wished to give one more hint to the new rulers. Government might mean wrapping up the child in swaddling clothes. It ought to mean unwrapping the swaddling clothes, so that the the child might learn by falling down. (Cheers). Government was not an end in itself. It should be merely a channel towards self-respect and self-control. The Indians were great thinkers and they would see that real progress and real freedom depended on increasing liberty and not on restricting it—liberty not only of voting, but liberty of conscience, liberty of thought, and liberty of speech. A Commonwealth of free peoples could only be brought to birth out of such liberties. He concluded by expressing the most heartfelt thanks of Mrs. Wedgwood and himself to Mr. Jamnadas and the assembly for the honour they had done them that evening.

The Hon. Mr. C. V. Mehta then proposed the health of Mr. Jamnadas, the host of the evening.

BOMBAY MUSLIMS MEETING.

WELCOME TO COL. WEDGWOOD.

To welcome Col. and Mrs. Wedgwood a public meeting of the Muselmans of Bombay was held under the auspices of the Central Khilafat Committee, last night at the Mustan Shah's Tank. Mr. Mian Mahomed Haji Janmahomed Chhotani was voted to the chair. The meeting was attended by about twenty-five thousand people. Prominent among those present were besides the chairman and the honoured guest of the evening, Pandit Motilal Neheru, Mr. Marmaduke Pickthall; Maulana Shaukatali, Mr. Omar Sobani and others.

The proceedings began with the recitation of a hymn from the Holy Quaran. Besides a resolution welcoming Col. and Mrs. Wedgwood, resolutions expressing satisfaction at the attitude of the Alighar students and Trustees of Islamia College, Lahore, expressing resentment and indignation at the prosecution of Khilafat workers and denouncing the candidates for the Reformed Council were unanimously passed.

A detailed account of proceedings will appear in a later issue of the "Chronicle."

"THE TIMES" ON NON-COOPERATION.

BOYCOTT OF ELECTIONS PARTIALLY EFFECTIVE.

MR. GANDHI NOT TO AGITATE UNCHECKED.

(REUTER'S SPECIAL SERVICE.)

LONDON, Oct. 27.
Recd. 2 p.m. Oct. 29.

"The Times" in a leader on the Non-Co-operation movement points out that the disquieting feature of the situation is the likelihood of the proposed boycott of elections proving partially effective. It asks how long Mr. Gandhi is to be permitted to cause ferment in India at will and says that deliberate attempt at destruction of a measure whereby a large instalment of self-government is given India constitutes (sic) the course so reprehensible that Mr. Gandhi cannot much longer be permitted to agitate unchecked. The Indian electorate must demonstrate in the coming elections that they are more fit to share in the control of their own affairs, than Mr. Gandhi's eccentricities suggest, while if the elections are a fiasco, the newly enfranchised millions will have shown the world that they do not deserve their new privileges.

RECOMMENDATIONS OF ESHER REPORT

MUST NOT BE ACTED UPON.

(REUTER'S TELEGRAM.)

LONDON, Oct. 27.
Recd. 1-30 p.m., Oct. 29.

In the House of Commons Robert Richardson (labour declared that the recommendations of Part One of the Esher Report were calculated, if carried out, to endanger the constitutional supermacy of civil power and to transfer the control of the Army in India from the Government of India to the War Office. He asked for an undertaking that none of the recommendations of the Committee would be in any way acted upon until Parliament and the Indian Legislative Assembly had discussed and approved them.

MR. FISHER'S REPLY.

Mr. Fisher replying referred the answer he had given to Sir J. D. Rees on the 22nd and stated that until Mr. Montagu and the Imperial Government had considered the whole report Mr. Montagu would not be in a position to make any announcement but he reiterated that many of the recommendations in the later parts of the report other than Parts One and Two were concerned with matters of detail within the competence of the Government of India and Mr. Montagu did not propose to delay dealing with them pending consideration of the important but controversial question to which Mr. Richardson had referred.

COMPOSITION OF INDIAN RAILWAY COMMITTEE.

MR. ACWORTH AND SIR WILLIAM BURT.

COL. WEDGWOOD.

HIS REPLY TO INVITATIONS

(ASSOCIATED PRESS.)

Colonel Josiah Wedgwood writes to the Press:—

In reply to the numerous telegrams and letters of welcome from all parts of India, I can only say that I am confirmed in my view that Indians are the most grateful people on the face of earth. As regards the invitations asking me to visit different parts of India, I assure those concerned that I shall do my best to include them in my programme of tour as far as possible.

Correspondence.

THE ATTACK ON MR. BAPTISTA.

To the Editor of "The Chronicle."

Sir,—The details of the attack on Mr. Baptista and others near the Bombay Electric Supply and Tramway Co.'s Depot at Victoria Gardens on Saturday last while they were returning in a Motor Car from the great Labour Meeting in honour of Col. Wedgewood, has been read in your Sunday issue of the 24th instant with great sympathy and indignation. Really it was very mean on the part of the paid official of an Indian Concern to have acted in a dastardly way against an Indian, so highly esteemed by the Indian Public as the Champion of the welfare of the poor Indians.

I hope the assault case will be seriously taken up by the Shareholders of the Company and the employee be dismissed for his crime as their servant of attacking a fellow country man.—Yours, etc.

"INDIAN".

Bombay, Oct. 28.

THE BOMBAY ELECTRIC SUPPLY & TRAMWAY CO. LD.

To the Editor of "The Chronicle."

Sir,—I wonder if the shareholders of the above company take any interest in the working of the company, the high salaries and allowances paid to the high Officials, and in the present strike.

On account of the strike the company is working at a great loss which can be seen from the running of cars, the employment of Pathans on the cars at Rs. 1/8 per day (with Lathis) step not sanctioned by the Bombay Municipal Corporation in the company's Bye-Laws, which mans a loss to the shareholders. Why should not Indians be paid handsomely who will in return work diligently and increase the income of the company that means a fast dividend to shareholders who are the proprietors of the Company. Let the present Scale of salaries paid to the high officials be revised and if that is unacceptable to them let their place be filled by deserving Indians.

I hope men like Mahatma Gandhiji Baptista and others will go to each and every shareholder of the company and induce them to see into the matter to mitigate the sufferings of the deserving poor.—Yours, etc.,

PARSIS AND HUMANITARIANISM.

To the Editor of "The Chronicle".

Sir,—It is an established fact, that every great religion is full of doctrines pertaining to Humanitarianism. Every well known religion strictly enjoins its followers to be humanitarians and to protect animals.—innocent and harmless animals and never to harass, or torture kill them. A religion which teaches to be or to do otherwise does not deserve the very name of religion, for our commonsense as well as our conscience teaches us that it is our sacred and bounden duty to protect and to make the lower animal happy as far as it lies in our power to do so.

Those who have studied the sacred books of the Hindus, of the Parsis, of the Christians and of the Buddhists, know very well that these books abound humanitarian teaching. As I am writing this article specially for the Parsis, I quote only from their scriptures.

In the "Patet Pashemand" it is written:

"Of every sort of sin which I have committed against Bahman, against the cattle against the various kinds of cattle, repent."

In oyasna XII it is written:

"I shall protect the cattle from thieves and robbers."

And in oyasna XXX it is written:

"Those who, without any cause, make the lives of animals wretched, are scoundrels, according to the Creator."

In the well-known Pahlevi work, "Thayasht-ta-Thayashao" it is written:

"Any man, who is desirous of pleasing the Bahman Ameshaspond and who considers it to be his duty to do anything for his happiness, should increase the (prosperity and happiness of) products of Bahman, and he, who wishes the "Vohumano" to be always near him, should please the innocent and harmless animals always and in every place, and should labour for their happiness in every way, and to protect them from the cruelty of the idle and the oppressive by each and every means. That man should never, under any circumstances, give them, as a bribe, to oppressive rascals, but should keep them in joyful, pleasant and comfortable places; in summer he should lay up for them grass and grain so that in winter they may no have o starve for food. He should not give them to persons of mean and ignoble nature but give them as presents, to good and virtuous men. Then again, he should not drive them away from their children, nor should he keep their children remote from their milk, because they are, in this world, the counte part of Vohumano. Those, who render service to such animals, earn praise in this world, and receive the blessings of the Creator."

Many such instances are to be found in various Avesta and Pahlvi books and if I were to give all of them here, I would require at least six column sof the "Bombay Chronicle," and perhaps Mr. Editor would also get vexed. But still, one more instance and I am done as far as quoting is concerned. According to the "Dabestan" when Zoroaster was returning to this world after paying a visit to the Creator to whom he had gone with the purpose of acquiring religious knowledge the Bahman Ameshaspond met him on his way and said to him:—"I entrust you with the work of protecting animals, and order all the people in the lower world to protect and to care for them and also order them never to harass or to give any sort of inconvenience to cow, sheep, goats and other animals, because the human race is vastly and highly benefitted by them and the person who harasses them or puts them to inconvenience is disliked by the Creator. The Creator has entrusted them to my care and I entrust them to your care. Do not consider these words which I have uttered just now to be devoid of weight or significance in any way but teach the people—old as well as young—to honour these words."

Such great weight and such great importance the Zoroastrian religion gives kindness to animals, and yet the "civilized" Parsis, orthodox as well as heterodox—consider this question to be insignificant and unimportant. Is it not a matter for deep sorrow and profound regret that some Parsi journalists, whom all same men should consider as scurrilous and foul-mouthed, should derogate so far from true humanitarians, as to try to undervalue their works and should write in such a manner as to blast their hopes and to throw cold water over their aspirations? How many Parsis are there who are staunch vegetarians? But let us not touch this question of vegetarianism to-day. Let us postpone it to some other day as this question is still considered to be a controversial one, simply on account of the fact that the majority of Parsis, who seem to have abjured their reason, are flesh-eaters of a high order. But I will ask to-day and ask in clear and explicit terms whether it is not the sacred and bounden duty of all Zoroastrians to take up this question, no longer regarding it as insignificant, with all their hearts. It is true Zoroastrians, in general, never directly harass animals but I ask, is it wise and right on their part even to see, from a distance, others maltreating and killing animals? O my co-religionists, are you at all justified in woking on at such a spectacle? By your criminal neglect of this question the number of innocent and harmless animals is slowly but steadily lessening and their physical condition is day by day growing worse. Had you not become careless about it, the prices of milk, butter and ghee would never have risen so high,—prices against which you are now clamouring. If you are real Parsis, if you are true Zoroastrians, I entreat you to wake up and cooperate with humanitarians of other communities so as to put an end to the heartless slaughters of animals, and at the same time lower the prices of milk, butter, ghee and other milk products. There are many societies for the protection of animals in Bombay, chief among them being "The Bombay Humanitarian League" (309, Shroff Bazar, Bombay: 2). I entreat the Parsi to become members of this League which is doing a noble work. Scarcely a Parsi uptill now has rendered any substantial necessary help to it, which is indeed a shame for a community so well-to-do.—Yours, etc.

KAIKHUSHRU JAMSHEDJEE DASTUR.

"A WITLESS ALLEGATION."

To the Editor of "The Chronicle."

Sir,—It has been said by a distinguished predecessor in office of the present Premier of England that he never felt himself so much in th right as when the London name sake of your morning contemporary said he was in the wrong. "The Times of India" seems to have taken upon itself the same role and we may nowadays presume the justice of any cause which has received a certificat of merit at its hand by adverse criticism. Most of your readers will still remember those illuminating leaderetes of the "Times of India" on the Indemnity Bill, the corpse in the Amritsar will picture in the "Chronicle," and mere recently that magnanimous one in which it expressed its pious wish to see Mr. Tilak as a shoe-thrower. Its latest production is the rowing paragraph under the unostentations heading of "A Witless Allegation" appearing in its issue of yesterday.

I would put one question. Are we to believe what Mr. Baptista says of his own personal experience or are we to accept what save scribe of the "Times of India" has purveyed to the anxious public? If there is one thing that impresses any reader of Mr. Baptista's letter, it is the ring of truth in every word he says. If the letter is essentially false, the Tramway Company can take legal proceedings against Mr. Baptista. But for these three days the letters has remained unchallenged and so it will remain; for it contains only facts, and facts cannot be challenged. Nothing short of sheer perversity and ill-will could have induced the paper to appear with that stupid and meaningless leaderette. We have had enough of such stuff; and the public of Bombay have grown sick of it. The sooner it changes its ways, the better it would be for all concerned.

We shall now see how "witful" the paragraph is. "It is the right of the Company to protect the lives of its employees. Pathans have been engaged for this very purpose o fprotection of their servants." So we come to it, "The Times of India" evidently forgets that in all civilised countries there is an institution called the Police whose business it is to protect the lives and properties of the people; and in India the Police are notorious for their "efficiency".—at any rate for that capacity to terrorise and cow down even the boldest spirits. So the Tramway Company were not satisfied with the Police protection in this Urbs Prima in Indis; and hence they made their own private arrangements for the protection of the lives and the properties of their employees? (Certainly, so very sympathetic of them for so much solicitude for the safety stomach for the recipients of such profuse of their employees! But what about a full sympathy?) The engagement of the Pathans is more reminiscent of the 13th and 14th century feudal lays when each chief had a large body of paid retainers, to fight for him in his quarrels with others.

So these "preservers of lives and properties' found it an essential point of the preservation that Mr. Baptista should be assaulted in so cowardly a manner and that some of the strikers should be so roughly handled.

What have the Police of Bombay to say against this direct insult to their efficiency as preservers of life and property? Again there is one awkward fact that made itself felt yesterday. Mr. Baptista's letter appeared on Sunday and from Monday "these preservers" made their mysterious exits from either side of the drivers! It would be interesting to know whether this is the result of any guilty conscience stung, to the quick lay Mr. Baptista's letter.

We have then the explanation for the employment of these worthy body-guards. It is because the "Bombay Chronicle" has objected to the engagement of the police by Companies to guard their properties in times of striker!

Furthers on "a Service is now running that is approaching the normal.' If it is near the "normal" then the strike is practically at an end; and all these fulminations are quite out of place. Perhaps reason and consistency are not essentials, when "times are super-saturated with emotion.'

But what do it mean by 'normal'? If it is that old conditions are fast being restored the sttement is to say the least of it, misleading as any one who has tried for a seat in a car has realised. The "normal" is still as far off as when the strike began. What about its elementary rule that no standing is allowed in the passage? This is tacitly ignored; and people are found clinging to the bars of the "normal service" trams with three-fourths of their bodies floating in the air! And the tramway authorities, not withstanding their tender regard for the lives of their employers, seem to take precious little notice of the perils to which passengers are exposed. Perhaps this is a feature of the "normalisation" of services?—Yours, etc.

BEGGARS OF BOMBAY.

To the Editor of "The Chronicle".

Sir,—You have published in "The Chronicle" dated the 26th instant, a letter on "Beggars of Bombay." Your correspondent has written that letter "to remove some misunderstanding", but, I am sorry, he instead of removing misunderstanding, has created it. In his letter, your correspondent writes "now— and the Social Service League, have each of them endeavoured to show to the public that they are tackling the solution of the beggar problem" and further he writes "I will be the last man to grudge either or the Social Service League taking the whole credit." Your correspondent is totally ignorant of the fact that the Social Service League has never made any such attempt. The accusation is, therefore, quite groundless and it seems your correspondent relies on his imagination only. As regards the two letters published by me on this subject, in my first letter published in the "Chronicle" on 21st July 1920 I have clearly mentioned that "the work of collecting starving beggars has already begun under the guidance of Mr. W. B. Manley, Deputy Commissioner of Police." On the same day Mr. Manley, in a meeting held in his office in connection with the beggar problem told me that he did not like to have his name publicly mentioned. So when I thought of writing another letter, appealing to people to stop indiscriminate charities and to help the Bombay Beggars' Home. In informed Mr. Manley of my intention. He again told me not to publish his name. Thinking that to mention Mr. Manley's name would be a breach of confidence I mentioned nobody's name in my second letter published in "The Times of India" on 19th instant. But I only indirectly wrote "those who have taken initiative in the matter wish to make the Home a model one" and "with the help of some generous people who voluntarily offered pecuniary help etc." Does it mean that 'the Social Service League' is taking the whole credit? I know very well that if the credit of this work is to be given to any gentlemen in particular it must be given to Mr .Manley and Seth Hussenally Cassam Mitha. The former for his ever increasing sympathy towards the beggars and the latter for his generous donation which enabled Mr Manley to start the Bombay Beggars Home and both the gentlemen deserves the thanks of the public. Mr. Mitha too is very keen on keeping his name secret and hence I had to refrain from giving publicity to his name. The Social Service League does not wish to take the whole credit of solving the beggar problem but at the same time it will not deny that it is helping the beggar problem by placing the services of one of its workers at the disposal of those who are trying to solve the said problem. So I may insist your correspondent to publish the statement in which the Social Service League has tried to take the whole credit of the work as he says in his letter published in the "Chronicle."—Yours, etc.

NO[illegible]N ROAD REPAIRING.

To the Editor of "The Chronicle."

Sir,—The Bombay Municipality deserves to be congratulated for having invented a novel method of repairing public roads. Unfortunately, the road selected for the experiment by the Municipal Road's Engineer is he Ramatipura 5th Lane which has been under the new treatment for the last month or two. The Western bit of that lane lying between the Central Road and Suklaji Street is spread over with loose concrete dust which in plaaces is gathered into small heaps. The work of resuming the such spread loose dust is left to the pedestrians and vehicles that have occasion to use the lane. Further up the lane between the Central Road and Bazar Road the Southern half of the road is undergoing repairs in a still more economical fashion. Here the road is not even dug and the loose concrete dust brought from some other old worn-out roads is spread over it. Here too the steamroller has never made its appearance and the pedestrians and carts are expected to press the dust down into the road. In both the cases no lanterns are kept at night, as they are probably considered by the economical wise acres of the Municipal Engineering Department to be poor substitute for the gas-lights in the lane which are at present on strike. Yours readers can well imagine the plight of the poor passers-by in this lane of darkness. Will the City father who is supposed to represent this lane wake up from his deep slumber and in his turn rouse the authorities and show them the folly and unwisdom of making novel experiments in road-making at the expense of the public. It is unthinkable that the Municipal Corporation of the Urbus prima in India cannot afford the expenses of digging and ramming the roads under repairs and of providing kerosine oil for the lanterns to be kept thereon.—I am, Sir, Yours, etc.

A RESIDENT.

AN APPEAL TO STUDENTS.

To the Editor of "The Chronicle."

Sir,—When the whole country is ringing with Non-Co-operation—a part of which is the spread of true National Education—it is proper and right that Students should make a move. The vitality and spirit of the Nation is in their young blood which efforts have been made to kill in part successfully. But now our time has come Shakespeare's tide 'which taken at the flood leads on to fortune has covered our beach. We must set sail while tehre is high tide or we shall again get stuck in the mud.

We must agitate for National Education and for the nationalisation of existing educational institutions. But for our movement to be effective there must be a bond between students of different parts of our country. There is no such bond at present, but a new one must be twined. A Central Body should be formed to deal with questions concerning students of all parts of India. It must investigate their grievances and try to remove them. For this purpose it is necessary that students from all parts of India should once meet together. They must decide what course they have to follow, what shall be the next step and in what direction. Our leaders are working for our welfare and we must help. An "All India Students, Conference" should be called to decide our course, to harmonize our movements and to encourage laggards. It will be good if this Conference meets at Nagpore along with this year's Congress. Students of Nagpore and of different Colleges and parts of the country and their well-wishers are requested to organize such a Conference. We must begin to work at once or it will be too late.—Yours, etc.

"ARTICLES OF PRODIGIOUS LENGTH."

To the Editor of "The Chronicle."

Sir,—Your morning contemporary has found a new way of condemning non-co-operation and that is by innuendoes and hints about the aftermath. It says in its leader of the 22nd instant that there have been circulated in India articles of prodigious length claiming that Hungary established her privileged position in the empire through the practice of non-cooperation. A little further it assumes this as correct but deplores the aftermath, as it established deadly rule of a minority of Hungarians over other races such as Croats, Serbo-Croats Roumanians and others. By articles of prodigious length your contemporary means the lectures delivered by Mr. V. J. Patel on "How Hungary freed herself," but it prefers to ignore the name of the lecturer for reasons best known to itself. But the statement that the Hungarians are in a minority in Hungary is so palpably misleading that it requires correction from an authority which the British public consider infallible and keep as a guide during their travels. The International Whitaker 1914 gives the population of Hungary as follows.

YEAR 1910.

Hungarians	10,050,575
Roumanians	2,949,032
Germans	2,037,435
Slovaks	1,967,967
Croatians	1,833,162
Servians	1,106,471
Ruthenians	472,587

From the above it will te seen that the Hungarians are equal in numbers to all the nationalities combined, and yet to call the Hungarians a minority ruling a majority is if not a down-right falsehood to say the least inaccurate. Now about the aftermath. Was Deak advising Hungary to participate in non-co-operation for the sake of having the constitution of 1848 restored and Hungary allowed complete independence of Austria in her internal affairs, or for the purpose of crushing other nationalities? To blame non co-operation for the aftermath is as ridiculous as to blame Cromwell for establishing a republic in England and allowing it to be ruled by the merry monarch afterwards. If Count Tisza and other Magyars born in the purple and nurtured in the independence for which their fathers fought, but for which they themselves had not suffered personally, made common cause with Germany there is nothing to wonder at. It is not the liberators of a country who are tyrants but their heirs who try to enslave other people to increase their comforts Hence to blame non-cooperation as practised by Deak and his followers for the catastrophe produced by the action of Count Tisza and his colleagues 50 years after is neither logical nor accurate.—Yours, etc.

CALCUTTA LETTER

COUNCILLORS' QUALIFICATIONS

GAS AND OTHER STRIKES

"PETTY TYRANNY ASSOCIATION."

(From our own Correspondent.)

CALCUTTA, October 26 1920.

The Puja Holidays have seen the future councillors up and equipped for their arduous enterprize, which has been rendered much easier by the backing away of countless non-cooperators. One enterprising gentleman distributes typewritten copies, another printed letter-papers, another postcards, and a Raja, namely a famous Nuddea gentleman, sends us almost a begging letter A gentleman says:—"I was an organiser of—Institution which unfortunately collapsed". Another vetern Councillor goes on foot from house to house, a servant carrying an umbrella over his head: he tries to be so very fascinating that the street folk openly cut jokes at his expense and sing.

"There goes the Ap-ka-waste man
In Council snubbed by Burdwan!"

Even a Maharaja says in a printed self advertising post card "The very ryots love me!" surely a rare qualification for a Bengal Zemindar.

Calcutta Strikes.

Though the tram strike here lasted only four days, the Gas strike still continues, The gas supply has been resumed in a feeble manner. Our gas stoves do not burn well and hardly a cup of tea can be made. The coal market is causing depression in the public mind, for most of the Calcutta families cannot pay Rs. 2 per maund, and as for firewood nobody dares ask its price. The streets remained dark for many nights, except for fourteen ounce candles stuck to the street lamps which made darkness just a little visible. The motor head lights were ordered to be lighted by the police during the crisis. The street lamps are now feebly burning, but the moon makes up for the want. The man in the moon ought to receive our taxes.

The Parsis and General Townsend

I learn from a Parsi gentleman that the celebrated artist Mr. Jatindra Kumar Sen whose art has made Calcutta magazines famous is going most likely to be appointed by the Parsi community of Bombay to be entrusted with the work of designing the address to be presented by the said community to General Townsend for saving an ancient Parsi Fort in Mesopotamia. Mr. Jatindra Kumar Sen is about 30 years of age: is a resident of Calcutta, was born in Darbhanga, and is renowned for his originality, pathos and the power of making other artists submit to him in imitation. He is also a poet and miscellaneous writer. Mr. Sen's latest work is "The Lighting Flash" The sky is rent as under: the lighting flares up, showing a womankind's choicest specimen inside.

Nationalist Meeting.

A Nationalist Meeting will be held in College Squre early in November at which all the editors and authors and many barristers will address the gathering. There is strange rumour that Mr. Gandhi will deal with some Calcutta colleges and that most Bengali's will bow before his unrivalled strength of mind and soul force. But, November cannot be as busy a season for College Square as September was, for elections will then be in full swing. During the election, however, a certain section of Nationalists, will I hear, push on propaganda work.

"Petty Tyranny Association."

We Bengalis often talk in the parlour in Calcutta that if a "Petty Insult and Tyranny Association" were started in this city, to prosecute with vigour each European high-handedness and insult to the man in the street, abuse and "You Bengali Swine!" that was heard in the Barrackpore Race Course by a Corporation employee the other day, much of the cruel tendency of the European and quasi-European will vanish from this world. Mr. A. B. Chothia's cheque and proposal will therefore be very much appreciated in Bengal. A Bengali proposal is that all Bengalis travelling by rail and going to gamble on the race course should keep visiting cards in their pockets upon which "You are another" will be printed in bold type. Directly a European abuses a Bengali, he hand him one of his cards. A barrister will sit every day at a court: and there everything will be daily reported to him, and the Press informed, and the name of the traducer of the Bengali circulated Whenever a station master (like the one at Bareilly who forcibly removed a passenger from one reserved compartment to another, as published in these columns a month ago) does something strange, this Association will send him a letter that apology and explain for failing that a deputation will go and" wait on him"and on the Railway Board President. This would be somewhat like the Bad Debt Society: you tell them that So-and-So is not paying you the money you lent, and the Society would play on a violin or cause a whole band to play at his door till payment was made. Is there none in rice Calcutta to send more cheques?

The "Bombay Chronicle."

With reference to the tribute of Mr. Tairsee and Mr. Bharucha, supported by the editorial appreciation of the author of "Said the Fisherman", Several Bengali gentlemen who peruse the "Bombay Chronicle" in Calcutta said "Well we did not know that anybody else was editing, and we thought Mr. Horniman was editing the paper by cable and mail from London, So similar are the two editings and such wonderful keeping up with past traditions', Cheaper Taxi Service.

It is generally understood that several thousand Ford Cars will be put on as Calcutta taxis running at 4 annas a mile, thus solving the great tram congestion for the middle class Bengalis who are being ruined by the Barrackpore Races and the Calcutta Course and malaria and high prices.

AFFINITIES BETWEEN INDIANS AND FRENCH.

Mr. V. B. Metta delivered two lectures the other day, at the Salle Francaise. The first was on 'Some affinities between Indians and the French people. The lecturer, during the course of this lecture, said, that both the peoples are fond of well-spiced food, of gest i ulating a great deal, and of talking loudly. The FFrench mother is unique in European Society. She is revered by her children, like an Indian mother. Then again the women of both countries are good business women. The French, though rationalistic now, were mystical one time, and that exploins why there is some psychical affinity between the Gothic and the Hindu styles of architecture. Both the nations are witty and satirical, as can be seen from the Sanskrit 'Hitopadesa' and the 'Fables,' of La Fontaine. The lecturer concluded by saying, that this affinity was partly due to the influence which the Arabs had excercise over the French people. When they occupied Southern France in the eigth century. And as all Oriental nations are fundamentally alike, we find this similarity between Indians and the French people.

MALADY OF MODERN EUROPEAN POETRY.

The second lecture was on "the malady of Modern European Poetry". The lecture brought out in this lecture the fact, that all the greatest Poetry of the World is healthy. Homer, Aeschylus, Virgil, Dante, Petarch, Victor Hugo, Corncille, Shakespeare, Milton, Goethe and Schiller were essentially healthy-minded poets. So too, were the great Oriental poets like Valmiki, Vyosa, and Kalidas of India, Firdusi, Hafiz, and Jami of Persia, the Arab poets like Al Hariri, and Al Farid, as well as the great poets of China and Japan. But the successors of the romantic poets of Modern Europe were neurotic, unhealthy creatures, who overwrought their eyes. He condemned the morbidity of Alfred de Musset, Paul Verlaine Baudelaire, Gabriele, D'Annunzio, and such other decadents, and wished for a healthier form of poetry and general literature.

CONDIDATES FOR COUNCIL OF STATE

(ASSOCIATED PRESS.)

RANGOON, Oct. 28.

Mr. Holberton and Mr. Frank Mccarthy have been returned unopposed to the Council of State and the Indian Legislative Assembly. There are eight candidates one European, two Indians, and five Burmans for the Council of State and General constituency and another eight candidates, one Indian, one Parsi, six Burmans for three Non-European constituency seats in the Legislative Assembly.

One of the brilliant functions connected with the Governor's visit to Trivandrum was a state banquet given by His Highness in the Durbar Hall. In proposing the toasts of Their Excellencies, His Highness the Maharajah alluded to Lord Willingdon's unique public career in India and remarkable qualities he had brought to bear on the discharge of duties attached to his exhalted office both in Madras and Bombay. NON-COOPERATION AND COUNCIL ELECTIONS.

(BY HON. SYED RIZA ALI.)

It is not without considerable reluctance that I have decided to seek election to the reformed U. P. Legislative Council. In fact my intention was not to take a decision till about the end of October but as in the United Provinces the 18th October was the last day of nominations to the Councils, it, along with another fact which I shall mention presently, has driven me to make my choice earlier than I desired.

Whether I can serve my country and my people better by seeking election than refusing to have anything to do with the new Councils will only be decided by the future. I do not claim infallibility for myself. But I can assure my Nationalist friends. with whom I have had the privilege to work ever since my association with politics began. that I have not taken the present decision without giving the programme of Non-Cooperation my most careful consideration. I have spent sleepless nights and anxious days over it, have approached it from different view-points that occurred to me, discussed it with men belonging to different strata of society, and have finally come to the conclusion that it would be a mistake to boycott the Councils. Not that I do not agree with the principle of Non-Cooperation. Non-Co-operation is the only constitutional weapon that can be effectively employed by those countries and peoples that have not achieved their political emancipation, Speech-making and resolution-passing are only tame processes that excits more ridicule than pity in the government of an inorganic state confident of its strength in in its huge mercenary amies snd the most modern weapons devised for the destruction of human life. An unarmed people cannot meet violence with violence, assuming that it were in their interest to do so; but they are surely entitled to withdraw willing co-operation from an erring government that stoutly refuses to repent of its follies and acts of injustice. And for this reason I accept several items of the Non-Cooperation resolution adopted by the special Congress at Calcutta. It however, contains three items to which I have been opposed ever since Mr Gandhi presented his programme to the country.

"A DISASTER OF GREAT MAGNITUDE.

My view is that the boycott of the Councils by the Nationalist party will probably produce some impression in England But the Nationalist party is not yet the synonym of the Indian people and Mahatma Gandhi's self-denying ordinance will prove more injurious to the country than to British rule. In an interview that I gave to a representative of the "Bombay Chronicle" in November last I said that the rejection of the Reform Bill, which was then being discussed in the press, would be "a disaster of great magnitude." I need hardly say that I still adhere to that opinion. It is most difficult to kill a body of men with contempt or indifference. If it were otherwise the Indian National Congress would not have survived the attitude adopted towards it by the Government. Had Mr. Tilak boycotted the Congress after the Surat split in 1907 he would not have succeeded in capturing it in 1917. Had the Hon. Pundit Madan Mohan Malaviya refused to be re-elected to the Indian Legislative Council in Aug. 1919, we would have been deprived of the great stimulus his utterances have imparted to our political consciousness by exposing the Punjab and Delhi bureaucracies in a manner which neither his greatfull countrymen nor the conscience-stricken bureaucrats will soon forget. How is Mr. Gandhi going to impose his will on the Government by calling it "unjust, dishonest and deceitful" from the platform and in the press? I do not suppose the bureaucrats will seriously mind these epithets as long as they are given a free hand.

The extension of franchise is almost the only important political reform which has brought England in a line with democratic countries. The same experiment is being tried in India on a limited scale. It is for us to take the greatest advantage of it in the shortest possible time. The Musalmans are bitterly smarting under the Khilafat wrong. It is not in our power to get the outrageous Turkish treaty annulled at once. But we can certainly do much to secure the withdrawal of the Indian troops from Mesopotamia and other parts of the Jazirat-ul-Arab by bringing pressure to bear on the Government in the Legislative Assembly and the Council of State. The Rowlatt Act has stamped humiliation and disgrace on every Indian's face: Mr. Gandhi took a solemn pledge not to rest content till it was repealed. What is Mr. Gandhi doing in that direction, and is there any assembly except the two chambers of Indian Legislature competent to pass a repealing measure? The Esher Committee's report has raised a number of vital questions, on a satisfactory decision of which rests our hopes of attaining complete self-government at an early date. Which is the proper forum to solve those problems, the Legislative Assembly and the Council of State or mass meetings at Bombay, Calcutta. Aligarh and Lucknow?

The question of Reverse Councils is agitating the country. We cannot be indifferent to the decision of the Government to allow 4,00,000 tons of wheat to be exported from India,

These are only a few out of the many questions that affect us vitally. May I, in all humility, ask Mahatma Gnadhi how does he expect to prevent the infliction of further wrongs upon India by severing his connection with the Government.

Opposed to the boycott of the Councils as I have been I would probably have accepted the decision of the Special Congress if it had not included the giving up of practice by lawyers and the withdrawal of students from Government and aided Schools and Colleges. Mahatma Gandhi says it is immoral to charge such high fees as some lawyers do in India. If so, the remedy lies in passing a law cutting down the scale of fee. But what will the lawyers do after giving up their profession? No doubt the lawyers do not produce wealth. But no more are those the producers of wealth who are in the service of the Government or are engaged in selling the goods manufactured in Europe, Amercia or Japan to the poor people of unhappy India. My greatest objection to this item of Mr Gandhi's programme is that it totally ignores the principle of equality of sacrifice. To be acceptable and effective the sacrifice imposed must have some degree of proportion between various classes of the population. As it is the lawyers must go to the wall and other classes of people engaged in no more virtuous avocations escape scot-free.

BOYCOTT OF EDUCATIONAL INSTITUTIONS.

Then we come to the boycott of the educational institutions in any way connected with the Government. It is unnecessary to dwell on this question at length. Opinions have already been formed on this important question which to my mind eclipses every other issue raised by Mahatma Gandhi. Just as our Bengalee fellow-countrymen have more experience of the boycott of British goods than the people of any other province the Musalmans know or ought to know better than other community what Non-cooperation with the Government system of education means. The history of the Musalmans between the Grant of the Diwani in 1765 and the establisment of the Aligarh College in 1875 constitutes an unbroken series of non-cooperation in the sphere of education. And we know the result to our great cost. No Musalman, no Indian can possibly forget the Khilafat and the Panjab wrongs. They will rankle in our hearts to our dying day. But shall I be justified in cutting off my hands and feet, my nose and ears because in subjecting me to an operation against my will my surgeon has acted maliciously and made me blind in one eye?. I feel convinced that the greatest catastrophe that can befall our country is the deprivation of our youth of the blessings of modern education, bad though that education may be. Mahatma Gandhi is a perfectly sincere and honest man. But sincerity and honesty are not always sufficient safeguards against making mistakes. The greater the man the more stupendous his blunder, since it spreads like wild fire. It is said we are in a sense at war with the Government because it is immoral and unrighteous. If it took the British 4½ years to defeat Germany, with the resources of half the world at their disposal, on the top of which came their unscrupulous diplomacy which succeeded in uniting practically the whole world against England's enemies, how much longer will it take us to bring England to her senses? Will Mahatma Gandhi deny the established system of education to our young men during the whole period of this struggle?. He may be the wisest man in the world but with the greatest respect I must say that as a rational being I find myself totally unable to follow his lead.

Syed Riza Ali then refers to the recent visit of Mr. Gandhi and Ali Brothers to Aligarh, and points out in detail the harm Mr. Gandhi's activities in the matter will do the institution.

Dear Mr. Noel,

It gives me great pleasure to tell you how much your system of physical training has done for me. Before joining your institute I had trouble of obesity and pain near shoulder owing to uric acid, the former is reduced to three inches and the latter has left me entirely.

I am much better in health and attribute it all to your careful and individual guidance and instruction.

I am recommending it to everybody I come across who needs it. Thanking you for the interest you have taken.

A SUBADAR MAJOR SHOT DEAD.

ARREST OF MURDEAR.

(ASSOCIATED PRESS.)

RANGOON, Oct. 28.

Subadar Major Niamal Khan I.D.S.M., 1/96th Berar Infantry was shot dead on Wednesday morning by a Havildar of the same Regiment who has been arrested. The funeral of the Subadar Major took place with full military honours the same evening attended by the Brigade Commander and the Staff and Officers of the Regiment. It is alleged that the Havildar had been detected in some unauthorised dealings with rations which was reported by the Subadar Major. The latter was in the orderly room talking to two other Indian Officers when the Havildar who had obtained catridges for quarter guard came up and putting the rifle to his shoulder fired twice at the Subadar Major. The latter was hit and fell to the ground, exclaiming: "I am dead". Jamadar Adjutant Chellia, who was in the room, immediately ran towards the Havildar who fired at him but missed aim. The Jemadar Adjutant closed with the Havildar and disarmed him but the latter broke away dropping a pouch of fifteen catridges. He ran away to quarter guard with the apparent intention of obtaining another rifle was seized without further struggle. Three empty shells were found near the scene of firing.

CALCUTTA POLICE.

SUBORDINATE OFFICER'S GRIEVANCES.

(ASSOCIATED PRESS.)

CALCUTTA, Oct. 28.

A memorial has been submitted by the subordinate officers of the Calcutta Police to the Governor of Bengal, in which they pray His Excellency to order an independent inquiry regarding their promotion and prospects. The memorialists lay great stress on the difference of treatment as regards pay and promotion between sub-Inspectors and Sergeants, stating that the former though better qualified, performing more onerous duties are often superceded by sergeants. The memorialists complain of favouritism in the service, which is due to appointments and promotions being left entirely in the hands of an individual officer. In conclusion, they suggest that appointments, promotions, dismissals etc.: of Inspectors and sub-Inspectors should be made by a board consisting of the Commissioner of Police as President and an equal number of senior Officers representing the interests of Christians, Hindus, and Mahomedans.

The memorialists also asked for an independent enquiry into their grievances.

PERSIAN REFUGEES FROM RUSSIA.

MERCHANTS AND POOR LABOURERS

(ASSOCIATED PRESS.)

ALLAHABAD, Oct. 27.

The "Pioneer" writes:—

From advices which we have received it appears that large numbers of Persian refugees are returning from Russia to their native country. These refugees are composed of two classes. Many of them are poor labourers who after suffering great privations have reached Persia by dangerous and unfrequented mountain paths which they were compelled to follow in order to avoid Russian military posts. It was feared at first that these refugees might in reality be emissaries of Bolsheviks who had been despatched in disguise to carry on propaganda with a view to bringing about a revolution. But it has been found that this is not the case, at least so for as the vast majority are concerned. Their exodus from Russia is due to tyranny and oppression practiced by Bolsheviks, want of food and clothing and above all dreads of approaching winter in famine conditions which are afflicting all but peasant population in that country.

The other class of refugees consists of merchants, most of whom have been robbed and ill-treated by Bolsheviks. One of those men stated that the merchant class are now objects of venomous hatred of Bolsheviks who are heaping every indignity upon them compelling them to sweep streets, dig trenches, and to act as grooms.

MAJ.-GENERAL FREELAND'S "HASTY' STATEMENT

RAILWAY EMPLOYEES ASSOCIATION'S PROTEST.

(ASSOCIATED PRESS.)

ABU ROAD, Oct 28.

Under the auspices of the Abu Road Sub-Committee a largely attended meeting of the employees of the B. B. & C. I. Railway was held with Mr. Cornelius, station Master of Neemuch, in the chair. Mr. Kothari, Hony Secretary of the Railway Employees Association, addressed the railwaymen on the present situation, in the course of which he criticised certain statements reported to have been made by Major General Freeland, Agent of B. B. & C. I. Railway at the Simla Railway conference and deplored his advice to the railway authorities in the country to harden their hearts in case railwaymen repeated their demands. He regretted the Agent should have cast any aspersions against those working for the cause of the employees and declared that the formation of district committees by authorities would instead of coming into closer touch with employees, removing their grievances and improving their conditions, destroy the growing force and usefulness of their Association which was working in a constitutional and effective manner.

Mr. Cornelius, President, said the statements made by the Agent were no doubt hasty, and probably due to the fact that he went to Simla from a storm centre (Bombay.) He urged them to work in a constitutional manner.

BACKWARD CLASSES' CONFERENCE.

MYSORE STATE ATTEMPTS FOR UPLIFT.

(ASSOCIATED PRESS.)

MYSORE, Oct. 27.

A conference of the backward classes in the State was held this morning under the auspices of the Praja Mitra Mandali when Rao Saheb H. C. Chenniah in his presidential speech alluded to the educational policy of Mr. C. R. Reddy, Inspector General of Education in the State, and said they advocated and welcomed it because it endeavoured for the first time in their history for the good of the rural classes and afforded them chance for rising from practically enforced ignorance to a state of enlightened life so as to form useful units of the nation. Mr. Chenniah alluded to the privileges granted to the Panchamas to send a member to the Representative Assembly and their admission to the palace durbars and said a significance of these privileges could not be overestimated. Those were measures which showed how solicitous was their beloved Maharajah for the welfare and progress of all his subjects irrespective of caste or creed and for which His Highness was entitled to their deep gratitude and thankfulness.

Among other matters Mr. Chenniah alluded to the rumours of the reversion of the State Council to three instead of four as at present, including the Dewan. He said they must most emphatically protest against any such reconstitution.

PROPRIETARY HIGH SCHOOL.

DIAMOND JUBILEE.

(From a Correspondent.)

The Proprietary High School was the first private High School in Bombay and the pioneer of secondary education by means of private enterprise. It is now amalgamated with the Fort High School and completes its sixtieth year, this year. It was founded on the 14th of June 1860, under the auspices of an influential Committee composed of the undermentioned gentlemen. Messrs. Jagonath Sunkerset, Bowanjee Hormusji Wadia, Framji Nasserwanji Patel, Pestonji Hormusji Camaji and Sorabji Framji Cowasji, to meet the need of an independent school for sons of wealthy native gentlemen. With a view to placing it on a permanent footing, a fund was raised of Rs. 5,000 in 100 shares of Rs. 50 each, and the school commenced with 125 pupils paying a fee of Rs. 5 per mensem each. In connection with this, may be quoted the subjoined from the report of Public Instruction, in the Bombay Presidency for 1859-1860. MR. E. I. HOWARD write:—"A proprietary English school has been established by the exertions of Mr. Coke and Mr. Cowasji Shapurji; the Gujarati Deputy Educational Inspector, in the Fort of Bombay, for the education of young gentlemen. It seems likely that the school will be successful. Government will doubtless put a high value on this first serious attempt to break through the pernicious circle of Indian ideas on the subject of elemosynary education-ideas which tend to perpetuate the present severance between the educated and the wealthy classes, which has been lamented by Lord Ellenborough." MR. COKE OBSERVED:—"Fort Proprietary School, this name has been given to an institution organised and established by this department on a co-operative system entirely new to Bombay. It is the first instance of the opening of a school through the Agency of the Educational Department. I consider the establishment of this school the most important fact which I have been able to accomplish during my short tenure of Office."

GOVERNMENT RECOGNITION.

On these reports, the Government of Bombay issued this Resolution—"The Governor in Council also regards with great satisfaction the establishment, by the exertions of Mr. Coke and Mr. Cowasji Shapurji of a Proprietary English School in the Fort of Bombay. His Excellency in Council will watch the progress of this institution with great interest, and he trusts that it will contribute many students from the higher classes to the University of Bombay."

These extracts will serve to show that the proprietary school was the first considerable experiment of a purely independent School on this side of India and that it was constituted on an entirely nowel principle. The principle of Joint Stock concerns, by which none but Shareholders had the privilege of nominating boys for admission.

Mr. C. A. Beyts, of Bishop's College, Calcutta, and the master of the candidate class in the Elphinstone Institution, was selected for the post of Head Master. During his head mastership the school passed one student at the Matriculation Examination of the Bombay University, which led the Chancellor, Sir Bartle Frere, to pay it the following compliments in his convocation speech of 1863. "The constitution of the Bombay Proprietary School presents many admirable features. It numbers among its students the sons of richest and most respectable Parsi Gentlemen. It is, I believe, self-supporting and the proprietors, with, as it appears to me, very sound judgment, retain its entire management in their own hands. We might justly expect from such a school, if not the largest number, certainly the largest proportion of candidates for admission to the University honours; and I trust that the Young Student who has now appeared amongst us will be the first of many sons of ours Parsi worthies who will vindicate by their career at this University their aspirations to be considered as one of the most enlightened communities in British India."

DECLINE IN POPULARITY.

It went on alright, but about 1853 however, symptoms of a decline in the popularity of the School began to make themselves manifest. Shareholders began to throw up their shares, chiefly in consequence of the collapse of the commercial and financial boom which had occurred at that time. The uumber continued steadily to fall, and in June 1866 reached the lowest ebb.

The crippled condition of the finances of the School, consequent on this state of affairs, necessitated the closing of it. Still there was felt a general desire to save such a beneficial institution from sinking into oblivion. At a meeting of the Proprietary body convened for the purpose of formally winding it up, Mr. Hormasji Jehangir Talyarkhan, the then first assistant teacher, offered to take it over and conduct it as an experimental measure. Accordingly it was made over to him for a pecuniary consideration, in August 1866, from which time it has had a fresh lease of life. When he took charge of the School, the number on the Register was 60. To attract more pupils, it was deemed advisable to reduce the fee which was felt to be a heavy strain on the reduced means of parents. Three rates of fees, Rs. 7, Rs. 5 and Rs. 3 regulated by the requirements of the pupils were substituted for that of Rs. 10 which had been charged all round. This reduction led to the infusion of a new and healthy element into the constitution of the School. To the school was attached a vernacular class as the nucleus of a vernacular department from which to reinforce the Upper and Lower School. These reforms produced the desired effect. The number at the end of 1866 rose to 100 and during succeeding years it increased to a well nigh 1,000. These figures afford some indication of the material progress the school made in numerical strength and popular estimation. The School has been very fairly successful at the Matriculation Examination, and has carried off several prizes and scholarships. To indicate the results achieved in the past by this private undertaking it may be mentioned that of these successful candidates, some took to commercial life, others were called to the Bar (The Honourable Mr. Justice D. D. Daver and Sir M. M. Bhownagaree, M. P., being among them.) Some were enrolled as solicitors at law and pleaders of the High Court or were enlisted as members of the Indian Civil Service (of these Mr. Muncherji P. Kharegat went to the Covenanted and Mr. Khurshedji R. Dubash to the Statutory services). Some have taken to journalism (Messrs. Berramji M. Malbari, Ardeshir Beramji Patel, R. P. Karkaria and R. S. Rustomji being among them; some were enlisted in the Indian Medical service (Lieutenant-Colonels Merwanji P. Kharegat, K. S. Nariman and H. K. Cama being among them.) Many received the degree of Master of Arts, of whom late Mr. Rustomji M. Patel, Judge of the Small Causes Court, was a gold medallist; some received their degree of medicine and surgery, and others that of Licentiates of Civil Engineering; of others who went up for higher examinations, or received degrees, either as Bachelors of Arts, or as Bachalors of Science the late Dr. K. N. Bahadurji was Gilchrist Scholar, and Mr. N. D. Ableess was called to the Bar and is now holding a higher appointment in England. One, Sir J Readymoney has received the honour of Baronetcy, two, D. J. Tata and Sir. M. M. Bhawnagri, that of knighta hood; while another, the Honourable Mr. Maneckji B. Dadabhoy, C.I.E., is now a member of the Viceroy's Legislative Council.

Under the present proprietors and head-masters, Mr. F. B. Master, Mr. M. H. Talyarkhan and Mr. D. B. Kharas, the schools have added to their traditional reputation for intellectual training, distinction for physical and moral education. They have carried off eight times the different High Schools Athletic Association Challenge Shields, such as the Harr's Cricket Shield, the Giles' cricket Shield, and the Tata Sports Challenge-shield.

The Schools are attended by sons of all classes of Parsi, Hindu, and Mahomedan families and have won good opinions of Government Educational Inspectors and other distinguished educationists.

A LITTLE DOCTOR FOR DYSPEPTICS.

If you want quick relief from the pains and distress of indigestion, dyspepsia, gastritis, food fermentation and acidity, just take two or three little tablets of Bisurated Magnesia after eating or whenever pain is felt. Bisurated Magnesia tablets are absolutely harmless, and enable the dyspeptic to enjoy a good old-fashioned meal without fear of pain or distress to follow. That's why Bisurated Magnesia is called "The Little Doctor for Dyspeptics." Go to the nearest chemist and get a package of Bisurated Magnesia tablets to-day; he sells them in handy flasks at small cost, and with every one is included a binding guarantee of satisfaction or refund of money. Thus, unless this "Little Doctor" gives you the benefit you desire, you pay him nothing. Bisurated Magnesia is also obtainable in powder form.

Dear Sirs,

Allow me to write you how pleased I am with the Britannic bicycle which I bought of you in 1911 and is in no way worst off. I have used it every day whether it rained or was dry and I am really pleased with the machine. I could not find words to express my pleasure, but looking to the price, the machine seems to be far cheaper than any one on the market.

Yours faithfully,

SURAT NOTES.

(FROM OUR CORRESPONDENT.)

SURAT 24th October 1920.

1. The Mill workers of the local 'Bela Mills' have been dissatisfied at the action of the authorities in suspending six of their fellow workmen and are therefore on strike. The behaviour of the men till now is quite peaceful and efforts are being made to bring about a compromise.

2. The quarterly general meeting of the local Municipality was held an Thursday last, when there was a prolonged and heated discusstion on the recommendation of the School Board Committee regarding the application of the Primary School teachers for increased pay. The proceedings were conducted in camera But it appears from the final resolution adopted by the Municipality that their attitude towards the primary teachers is far from sympathetic. in asmuch as they are not prepared to give them any increase at present although the same has been sanctioned by the Government.

3. The peons of the Revenue Department have applied for a revision of their pay. They have further intimated to the authorities, that if their reasonable request is not granted by the 5th November they will be compelled to go on strike.

4. One of the local newspapers publishes a report of the high-handed manner in which a Police Sub-Inspector of the Olpad Taluka treated a Police Patel of that village. The Police Patel made a report to the Sub-Inspector in the matter of a certain woman (. . . .) Thereupon the Sub-Inspector called the Police Patel, took him severely to task and gave him two or three slaps and drove him away. The Police Patel could not bear this insult and has therefore submitted his resignation. The paper draws the attention of the authorities and requests them to carry on proper inquiries into the matter and see that justice is meted not to the poor Patel.

5. Mr. Kadri, the Educational Inspector Northern Division, began his annual inspection of Schools of this districts last week and in the course of his visit to this City, he called a meeting of the teachers of the Secondary Schools and exhorted them to corparate with the Government. He laid great stress on the point that the education imparted at present was national and would be made so, under the Reformed Act when education would be transferred to a Minister of their own.

6. A special general meeting of the Primary school teachers held under the presidentship of Mr. Nathalal Vakilna has resolved to hold a District Conference of the Primary teachers during the next month. An Executive Committee has already been appointed and volunteers have come forward to see that the conference is a great success.

Bombay Citizens' Public Meeting.

Appeal to the Viceroy to intervene.

ATTEND AND MAKE IT A SUCCESS.

UNDER THE AUSPICES OF

The Bombay Native Piece-Goods Merchants' Association,

A PUBLIC MEETING.

WILL BE HELD

on SUNDAY, 31st October,, 1920

at Madhav Baug, At 4-30 p. m. (B.T.)

Under the presidentship of the HON'BLE MR. MANMOHANDAS RAMJI J.P., to pass the following resolution in connection with the inconveniences and hardships that the public have to undergo on account of the postal and telegraphic strike.

RESOLUTION I.—Nomination of the Chairman.

TO BE PROPOSED BY :— SETH DEVIDAS MADHAVJI THAKERSEY, J.P.
TO BE SECONDED BY :— SETH VITHALDAS DAMODER GOVINDJI.

RESOLUTION II.—This public meeting of the citizens and Merchants of Bombay is of emphatic opinion that the public in General and the merchants in particular have to undergo great hardships and even pecuniary loss on account of the postal and telegraphic strike and further it feels that if this sort of things be allowed to continue the situation would be still serious and grave and so it resolves to send a message to His Excellency the Viceroy kindly to immediately start negotiations with the Director General of Post and Telegraphs in such a way that the present grave situation would soon come to an end.

This meeting is afraid of a tremendous and huge loss in the mercantile business of the city of Bombay, if the proper steps will not be taken in time, in this matter, as the temporary arrangements afforded by the postal authorities are proved to be the least satisfactory to the public.

This meeting authorities its President to forward this resolution telegraphically to His Excellency the Viceroy.

TO BE PROPOSED BY :— SETH HARJIVAN VALJI.
TO BE SECONDED BY :— SETH NARANJI DAYAL.

RESOLUTION III.—Vote of thanks to the Chair.

TO BE PROPOSED BY :— SETH LALJI GOVINDJI.
TO BE SECONDED BY :— SETH VRAJLAL BHAGWANDAS.

RESOLUTION IV.—Vote of thanks to the Proprietors of the MADHAV BAUG.

TO BE PROPOSED BY :— SETH NARANDAS PURUSHOTTAM.
TO BE SECONDED BY :— SETH LAXMIDAS PURUSHOTTAM.
